Dedication

To a person who has inspired his students to excellence, one who has combined rigorous scholastic standards with warm friendly interest, one who has given his time and interest in putting North and her students above the mediocre, one who has dedicated himself to the profession of teaching and gets back from his students a spirit of cooperation and a great deal of respect . . .
With pride the 1968 staff is pleased to dedicate this 17th volume of the Viking to

Mr. Beverly Clayton

Mr. Beverly Clayton

Where help is needed, Mr. Clayton is always there. His warm personal interest in the student and his work builds good rapport between him and the student.

SPIRIT

. . . The essence of the feeling of a school

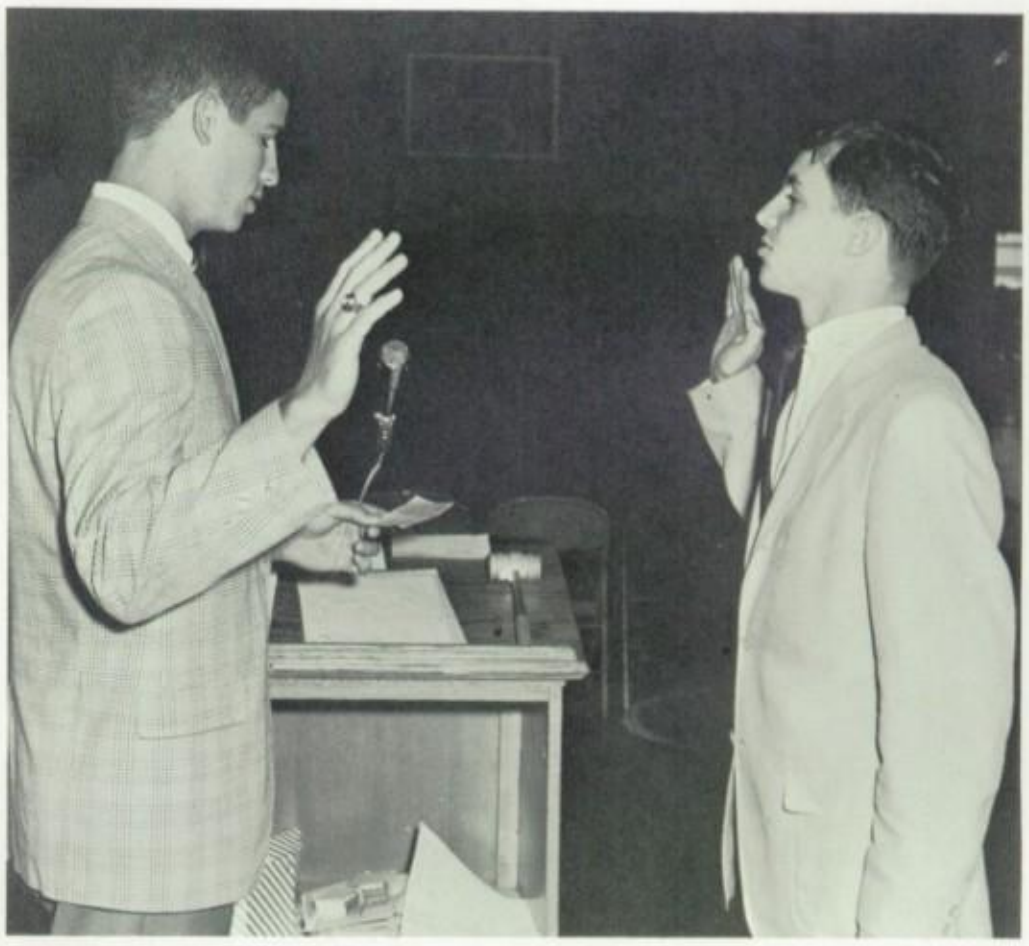
. . . in particular, the spirit of North.

Spirit is reflected in many phases of school life. Athletics spirit is loud, emotional; the spirit of study is quiet, concentrated. Perhaps even more important than these is the silent spirit of concern for a school . . . the spirit of North.

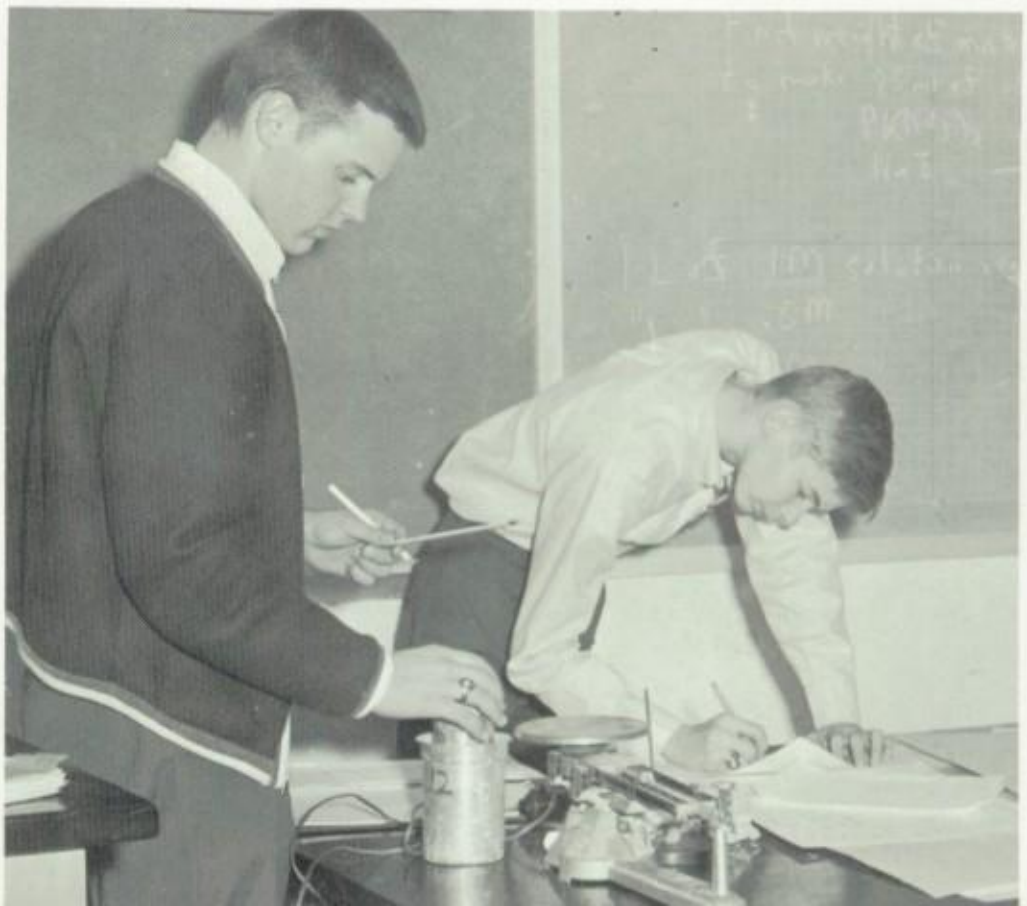
Questioning, learning, thinking, striving for the best, accepting defeat: these, too, are a part of spirit. Thoughtfulness, whether from student to student or student to teacher, is another link in the chain of the spirit of North.

Students, Mike Tucker, Evelyn Freeman, and Marsha Savage talked to Mr. Roberto Alcala, who is from Mexico but is now living in Charlotte.

At a pep rally Mr. Hough was presented a "Myers Park mustang."



Last year's Student Council president, Truscott Rhodes, administered the oath of office to Curtis Smith, present president.



Working hard to complete a physics experiment were Bill Dotger and Steve Peterson.

Spirit wasn't always high; but it never stayed down. Don Hager and Coach Haynes felt the pressure of the game with East.

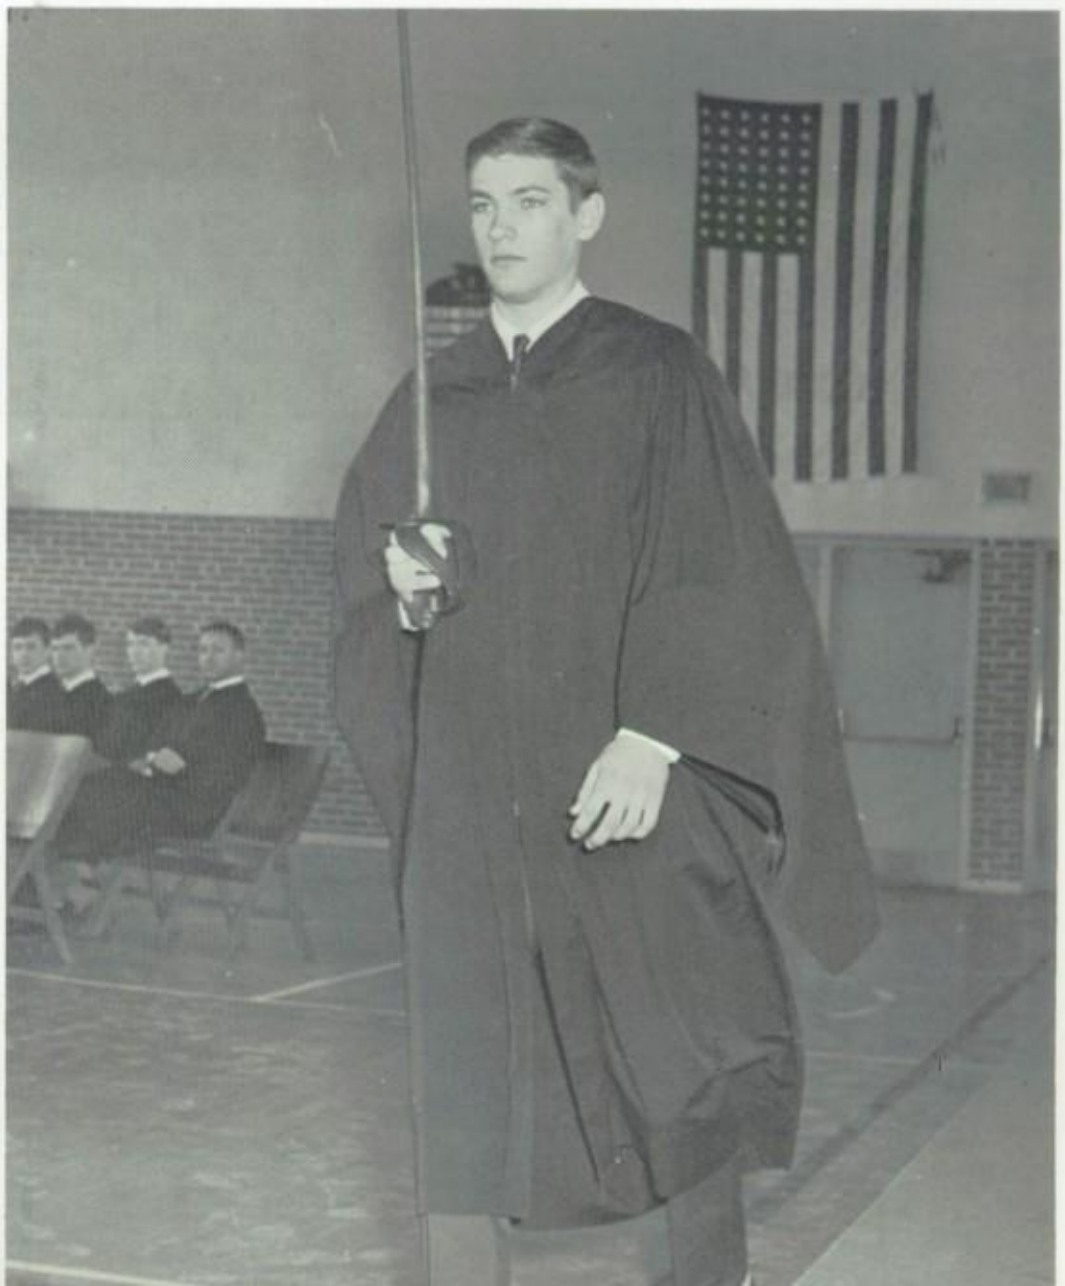
"Seniors, Seniors, what's your cry?" . . . "Victory, Victory, that's our cry!" always brought Rebs to their feet.

After having finished as division champs, the baseball team played West to determine which team would go to the state finals. Don Oxidine looked over the telegrams the team received just before the game.

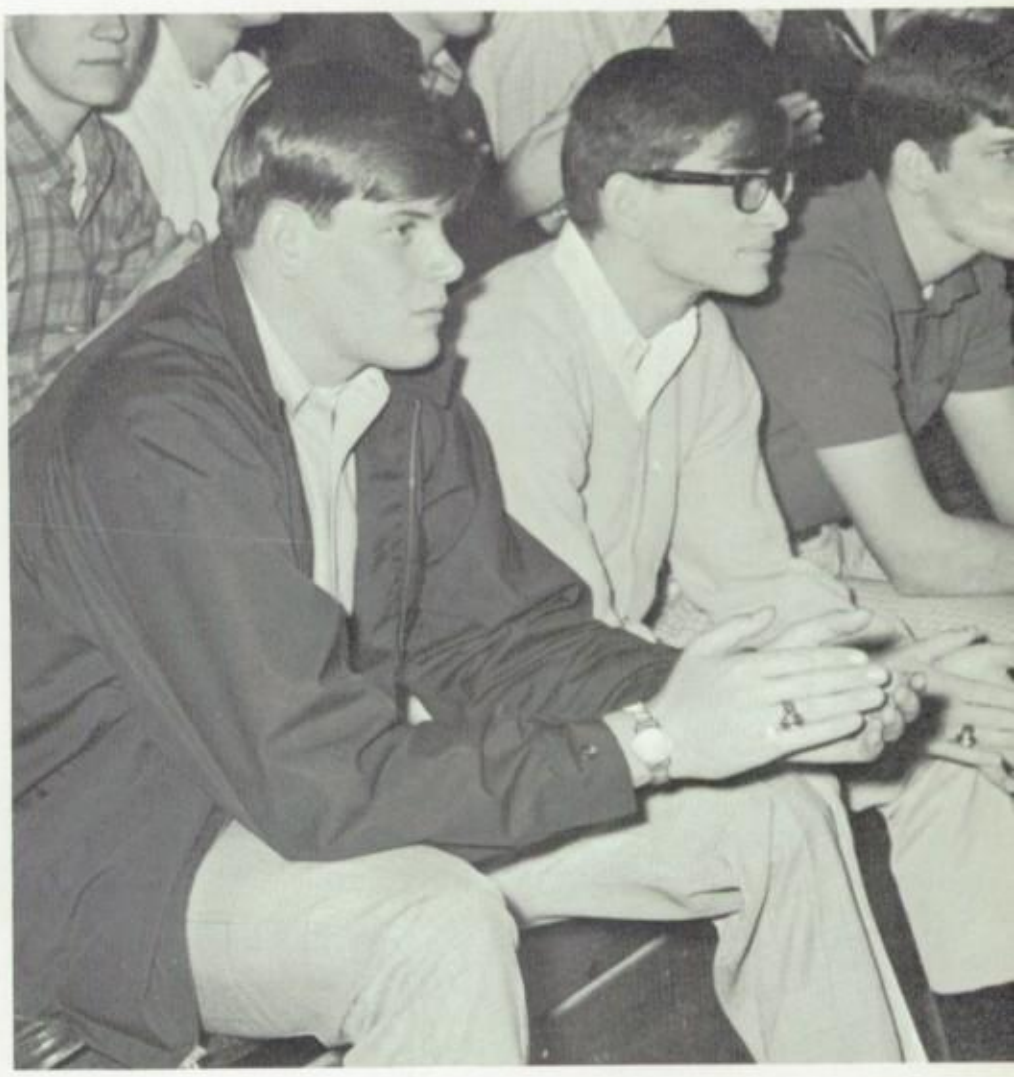
Happiness is being able to enjoy the victory of friends. When the beauty contest winner was announced, LaDonna Robinette and Dianne Stewart, both contestants, congratulated the winner, Sandra Raborn.

Santa Claus (Steve Woollen) relaxed with a coke to listen to Carl Oehler's Christmas list.

Glenn McLeroy took his turn with the sword during the Key Club tapping assembly. Senior members tapped in the new members.



The Rebel came to stay! Created by Gail Nicholls, a graduate of North, the statue became the mascot of the student body.



Assemblies were often for listening. Brian Dean, Steve Blair, and Lyn Murphy had focused their attention on the speaker.

Scholarship is a virtue to be proud of. Tommy Plott lit Alan White's candle at the National Honor Society induction, when those who had excelled scholastically were taken into the Society.

STUDENT LIFE

Student life reflects that part of the student's day that is spent out of class.

This area of school involvement is likely to be devoted to extra-curricular activities including clubs, publications, and school service.

Beauty contests, athletics, clubs, honors, lunchtime, socializing: These are all a part, an important part of the student's life. These are the spirit builders.

Fun is talking on the phone, especially when one is supposed to be on his way to the library. Barry Hart took time out for a friendly chat.

To let North students keep up with "what the action was," Linda Hopkins (kneeling) and Hope Minter put up a bulletin board for IRC Week.

After the National Honor Society induction, members enjoyed refreshments along with their parents.

Opportunities for Participation Add to Spirit

"Air Raid!" That was the signal that sent Beth Royster and Judy Kelly to the floor, ack-acking until told to stop.

Dances in the gym, club initiations, pep rallies, class activities all of these add up to spirit. Many other opportunities foı participation helped to add to the spirit of the students. The more involved one became, the more spirit he had.

Full participation brought its rewards. Toby received his cross country letter from Mr. Cochran.

Sock-hops were few, but they were enjoyed by many members of the student body, especially when a live band furnished the music.

It took spirit and stamina for the JV football players to keep the pace required by Coach Hayes. It must have paid off, however, for the team racked up a winning record.

Happiness was getting a cake. Civinettes presented this cake to Mr. Haynes at the last football game.

Bus rides made for good fellowship. Trainer Bobby Benton and players Wayne Taylor and Tom Jones were headed for Gastonia.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council Active; New Committees Formed

Elected by the student body, the Student Council officers were Curtis Smith, president; LaDonna Robinette, secretary; Lawrence Raymer, vice-president; and Vickie McConnell, treasurer.

Led by Curtis Smith, the Student Council was unusually active. Two new committees were formed — the Fishbowl Forum and the Statue or Bust Committee. A Student Evaluation Committee was also appointed.

In December, the Council sponsored a dance to raise money for a Peace Corps school in South America. Added to North's contribution were funds collected by Ranson and Alexander.

Many subjects were brought up for discussion during the year. One problem was the use of the parking area. Stickers were placed on all cars regulation was still difficult.

Another project of the Council was the Leadership Training School which was held each spring. Here students learned parliamentary procedure and listened to guest speakers. They divided into small groups for question and answer discussions.

Newly appointed this year, the Student Evaluation Committee worked with the administration to have the school accredited by both the state and the Southern Association. Members were Jerry Moore, Donna Campbell, and Louis McElroy.

Members of the Handbook-Scrapbook Committee were (SEATED): Jane Seay; Julia Nance; Susan Davis, Chairman. (STANDING): Jeanne Stewart; and Lewis McElroy. They kept the record of the school in a scrapbook.

Serving on the "Statue or Bust" Committee were Hope Minter; Jane Nicholls, Chairman; Linda Hopkins; and Martha Johnston. Their goal was accomplished when they put the "Rebel" in the Student Lounge.

Social Committee members were Emilie Garmon, Chairman; Nancy Dickinson; Glenn McLeroy; Marilyn Ferris; and Elizabeth Ewart. Their main project was planning for the Homecoming Dance and seeing that those plans were carried out.

Members of the Charlotte Exchange Student Program Committee were Mike Woollen; Torbjorn Hogberg; Linda Hopkins; Miss Rigney, Adviser; Lizabeth Bradford; and Martha Johnston, Chairman. They worked to have North students live abroad for the summer and to have a foreign student live and go to school in their community.

Composed of Henry Shue; Jerry Beard, chairman; and Steve Hunt, the House and Grounds Committee was responsible for taking care of the parking situation. Their particular project this year was to extend the parking space and try to have the new area paved.

Members of the Hospitality Committee were active this year. They sponsored "Kans for Kids", and delivered two thousand cans of food to needy families. They also welcomed newcomers to North, and on Toby's birthday, made him a cake and brought it to school, where they surprised him with an American birthday tradition.

Working on this Committee were (SEATED): Janet Cox, chairman; Gail Baucom; Jerry Moore; LaDonna Robinette; Vickie McConnell; Pat Alexander. (STANDING): Julia Nance; and Libby Sparks.

Each morning, devotions were read over the intercom, with different homerooms and clubs leading them. At assembly, devotions were also given. Responsible for these devotions and for scheduling them was the Devotions Committee. Working on this committee were Jane Ewart; Kathy Burgess, chairman; and Jane Monteith.

Committees Appointed to Carry Out Council Work

Setting up the assembly programs was the main concern of the Assembly Committee. Members were Henry Shue; Glenn Morris, chairman; and Mike Wood.

Committees of the Student Council were appointed to carry out the work of the Council. Some of them were standing committees, and others were appointed as the occasion called for them.

Some of the standing committees were the House and Grounds, the Hospitality, the Publicity, and the Social Committees. Others, such as the "Statue or Bust" Committee, were appointed to do a special job.

Katy Coley, Beck Hefner, Carol Grice, and Beth Royster were members of the Publicity Committee. Their special job was to keep the student body informed about projects and events sponsored by the Student Council.

Fishbowl Forum members were (SITTING): Donna Campbell; Teresa Stinson; Michelle Blount. (STANDING): Mary Roach; Donna Sharpe, Chairman; and Kay Crowe.

ICC Carnival Raises Funds For Student Exchange

Members of the Interclub Council were presidents of the clubs at North. Lawrence Raymer, vice president of the Student Council, served as chairman.

Held in the spring, the Council's main project was the Interclub Carnival. Each club was responsible for a money-making booth or entertainment at the Carnival. All proceeds went to the Foreign Exchange Student Fund.

Featured last year were the Psychedelic Soul Cellar, water games, games of skill, a horror house, and bingo. Following the games, everyone was invited to the sock-hop, which was held in the gym.

Pitching darts at the balloon board was fun for Bobby Barbee. Allan Swicegood was in charge.

Another fun game was that of puncturing balloons filled with water. Mike Wood was on the receiving end of a burst balloon.

County Sheriff Guest Speaker

Stressing honor and responsibility, the Honor Council worked to uphold the Honor Code at North. To deal with Honor Code offenders was the Council's chief duty. To acquaint students with the meaning and responsibility of the Honor System, the Council held a special Honor Week.

Highlighting the week was an assembly in which new members were inducted. Mecklenburg County Sheriff, Donald Stahl, was the guest speaker. During Orientation, members staged a mock trial to give the Sophomores an idea of how the Council worked.

In the mock trial, Glenn McLeroy was the culprit. Steve Woollen read the Honor Code to him as the other Council members looked on.

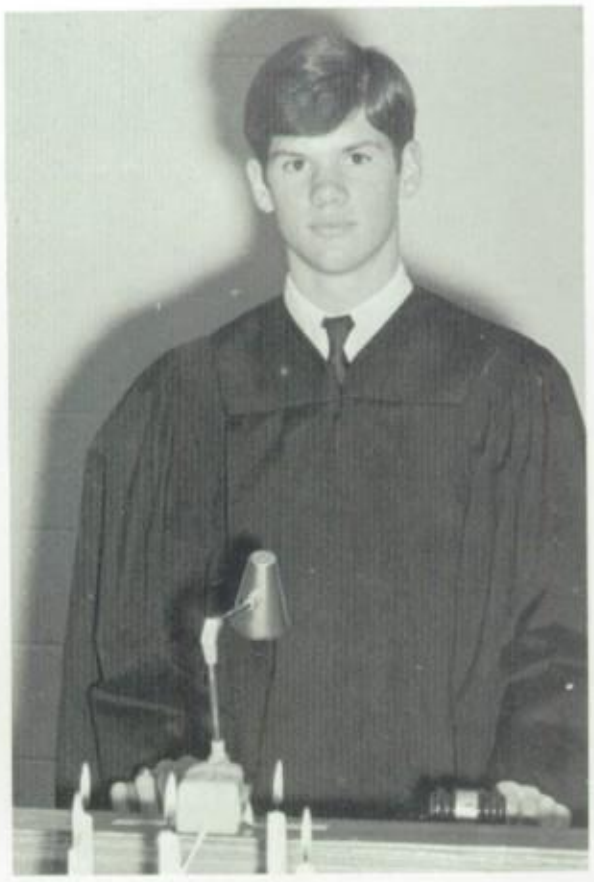
Speaking to the student body during Honor Week was Sheriff Donald Stahl. He gave the students some statistics that were quite impressive.

Induction Ceremony Held for New Members of NHS

Leadership, scholarship, service, and character were the qualities stressed by members of the National Honor Society. Eighteen new members were tapped into the club in the fall. Tapping was done in the homerooms.

In November, an induction ceremony was held for new members in the Student Lounge. A reception followed the ceremony.

Dr. Hight, from Davidson College, spoke to the group in November. Martha Johnston and Curtis Smith, who lived abroad last summer, spoke on their trips to Europe. In December, the Society gave fruit baskets to needy families. Money raised during the year made possible a $50 scholarship, given at the end of the year.



Also speaking at the Honor Society induction was club president, Tommy Plott. He spoke on knowledge.

At the induction ceremony held for new members of the Honor Society, Glenn McLeroy spoke on character. He lit a candle representing character after he had spoken.

Math Clubs Study Logic, Computer Programming

For students interested in math, the Math Club held programs that explained the different phases of the subject. Members met after school every other Monday.

In addition to guest speakers, various members of the club explained such subjects as data processing, computer programming, and logic. They also enjoyed mathematical games and puzzles.

Hi-Pi Club members have been busy ratifying their constitution. Members planned special programs to be given throughout the year. Some of these discussions have been on ESP, computers, mathematical puzzles and geometric drawings.

Officers of the Hi-Pi are Libby Stroud, president; Kathryn Mahoney, vice-president, Nanci Smith, secretary, Diane White, Reporter, and Kathy Ratliff, program chairman.

VICA, Science Clubs Strive toward Expansion

In their first year at North, the VICA members attended a regional workshop in March and competed in several areas.

Because they were newly formed this year, their participation was limited; however, they looked forward to a more active program next year.

North's Science Club provided an opportunity for members to increase their knowledge of science outside the classroom. They made field trips to the Union Carbide Plant, Florida Steel and Drum Company, The Dana Science Building at Davidson College, and the Kennedy Science Building at UNC-C. Other meetings featured science films and guest speakers.

After all the guests had been served when the DE students entertained their parents, Chester Looney, Mike Beeson, and Esther Stacks waited on Wanda Lunsford to serve herself so they could do the same.

Mrs. Greene, Bonnie Greene's mother, and Jack Horton and his mother enjoyed refreshments at Family Night activities.

DE Club Members Entertain at "Parents' Night"

All students taking Distributive Education at North were eligible to be a member of the DE Club. Through its activities, civic consciousness and vocational understanding were promoted.

Surveys were made by the club to determine the vocational needs of North students. Members competed in advertising layouts, public speaking, sales demonstration, and DE Boy and Girl of the Year contests on the district and state level.

Competing at the district level at the convention were Alice Cochrane for DECA Sweetheart, Sam Harton for the job interview contest and Jack Horton for secretary-treasurer.

Red Cross, JA Activities Reach into Community

Speaking to the entire student body at a special assembly, Mr. Calvin Hunt, director of Charlotte JA, informed the students about the JA program. Any student who was interested in learning about free enterprise could be a member.

JA members organized corporations, sold stock, made products, and then sold the products. In the process, the students learned how the economic system works.

Representatives from each homeroom made up the membership of the Red Cross. A chapter of the national organization, the club sent gifts to soldiers in Vietnam. They also sponsored operation "Blood Hound" and started an organization of eighteen year old blood donors.

FTA, Health Careers Club Explore Future Jobs

Sponsored by Mrs. Helen Hart, the Health Careers Club explored the opportunities in the field of health. Any student interested in a career in health could join the club.

Films, speakers, and field trips were included in the program for the year. At Thanksgiving, the Club made horns of plenty for the trays for patients at the Huntersville Hospital. Members made a trip to the Charlotte Rehabilitation Hospital, also.

Varied activities kept the members of the Future Teachers of America busy. They observed National Education Week, held teas for the teachers, and sponsored Teacher Appreciation Day.

Their purpose was to provide an opportunity for students to explore the teaching profession. Films and guest speakers provided interesting programs.

By holding a children's clothing drive and decorating the men's lounge, the club was of service to others. Mrs. Kluttz, the adviser, and four members attended the state FTA convention in Raleigh on November 4.

To beautify the school grounds around the Home Ec. department, the FHA planted azaleas, with the help of the FFA members. Doing most of the digging and heavy work, the boys enabled the girls to enjoy the colorful blooms of these plants.

Lunch Table for Football Players Set Up by FHA

Membership in the Future Homemakers of America was open to any girl taking Home Ec. or who had taken the course. The club brought together girls who were interested in better homes and family living.

Members of the club gave a reception for the sophomore girls in September. After each Rebel victory, the FHA set up a special table for the football players in the lunchroom. At Thanksgiving, the club collected food and clothing for needy families. For Christmas, the club gave paper weights to all the teachers and held a Christmas party for small children.

In November, the FHA made it possible for the entire band to go to Chapel Hill by adding to their band uniforms. A nursery for children was sponsored by the FHA during each PTA meeting.

FBLA Holds Assembly; FFA Has Varied Activities

In its second year at North, the Future Business Leaders of America strived to promote service, education, progress, and knowledge of the business world. Tours were made to NCNB, Wachovia, Duke Power Company, Marshall Steam Plant and Cowans Ford Dam. Projects of the club included typing all school programs and giving a scholarship to a deserving business student. In February, they held an assembly to explain the purposes of the FBLA.

To develop leadership, cooperation, and better citizenship, were the purpose of the Future Farmers of America. They practiced public speaking, parliamentary procedure and judging animals, soil, and seeds.

North Star Staff Plagued by Layouts, Deadlines

Putting out a monthly newspaper required many long hours of hard work from journalism students. By trying to make students aware of happenings in and around the school, members of the North Star staff bettered their own understanding of journalism.

Mr. Stan Brennan and Mrs. Belle Banks provided a change from regular classroom work by speaking to the staff.

Once again, a special spirit edition was published and released the day of the basketball game with Myers Park. Special advertising rates were offered for "Beat Myers Park!" ads, and a prize was offered for the best ad. The edition was dedicated to Coach Pigg.

Marleen Alexander and Donna Campbell were proud of the North Star edition that they had worked on. Active in the work of the staff, both girls strived to make each edition the best.

Advisor of the North Star, Mrs. Maxwell, and the editor, Martha Greene, discussed the "Beat Myers Park!" edition of the newspaper. To get it out on time, the staff had to work fast and observe long hours.

IRC, Bible Club Work for Better Understanding

Members of the IRC worked to gain a better understanding of other people and of world situations. Among the guest speakers were Torbjorn Hogberg, Martha Johnston, and Curtis Smith, as well as several Richardson scholars from Davidson. IRC members helped honor Torbjorn at a reception early in the year.

At a banquet, foreign dishes were served. Special guests were the Richardson Scholars, Torbjorn, and exchange students from other schools in the system.

Working with the Devotions Committee, the Bible Club planned morning devotions and those for assembly. Club programs featured guest speakers and discussions of various aspects of the Bible.

Banquets, Native Dress Climax Language Weeks

Language clubs held their meetings during class periods, and their programs grew out of class work. Students learned about the country and the customs of the people, as well as the language of that country.

Highlighting the year was a special week of activities. During this week the club gave devotions in the language, and on a special day wore native costumes.

To climax this week, each club held a banquet, where native foods were served. Following the feast, members entertained with a program following the customs of that particular country. At this banquet members wore native costumes.

Latin and Spanish classes had such clubs and learned from planning programs for meetings and related activities.

Officers were elected for each Latin Club, but the students also elected officers for the entire group of Latin Clubs. These officers were Glenn McLeroy, treasurer; Don Hager, president; Mr. Sellers, adviser; Flynn Brantley, vice-president; and Brenda Puckett, secretary.

Just one more sprig of laurel was needed for Don Hager's victory crown, so Lynn Ritchie did the honors, much to the amusement of both of them.

At the French banquet, three French students entertained with "The Singing Nun." Carol Byrum accompanied on the guitar as Judy Kelly and Sherry Sigmon sang.

Language, Customs Studied by French Clubs

Throughout the year, the French Clubs worked to encourage interest in France, her customs, and her people. Working with the IRC and the Spanish Clubs, the French Clubs held a reception for the foreign exchange student, Torjborn Hogberg.

Members of the Clubs attended the Moliere comedy, Tartuffe, presented in Charlotte by Le Treteau de Paris.

During French Week, the French Clubs, like the other language clubs, put up bulletin boards depicting native scenes. In January, the French Club won the award given by the North Star Staff for the best advertisement in the "Beat Myers Park" edition.

Civinettes Receive Award at District Convention

An honorary girls' service club, the Civinettes were active in the school and the community.

Huntersville Hospital was the site of Thanksgiving and Christmas programs given by the club. Members also visited Thompson Orphanage with refreshments and games.

In November, the Civinettes received the Club of the Month Award for their work on the last football game. Olympic Civinettes, newly chartered, were guests of North's Civinettes at a meeting in January. At the District Convention in Asheville in 1967, the club received an award for the Best Community Project and a second place in Scrapbook Competition. President Marilyn Cooke was selected Best Club President.

Civinettes prepared and served refreshments at the Sophomore Reception. Serving Toby were LaDonna Robinette and Dianne McConnell. Martha Johnston looked on.

Serving on the Board of Directors were (SITTING): Martha Johnston; Dianne McConnell, treasurer; LaDonna Robinette. (STANDING): Marsha Caldwell; Pat Alexander; Janet Ward, president; Martha Greene; and Judy Kelly, secretary.

Key Club Raises Money for $500 Scholarship

One of North's most active clubs, the Key Club was not only an honor club, but a service club as well. Boys who showed leadership and service potential were nominated for membership by the faculty.

Activities of the Key Club included selling concessions at sports events, parking cars, cleaning up after football games, selling Rebel flags and basketball programs. They also sponsored a telephone booth for students.

With the Civinettes, the Key Club co-sponsored a dance after one of the football games.

Each week, two or more of the members had lunch with the Kiwanians at their regular meetings. With the help of the Kiwanis Club, the Key Club offered a scholarship to a North senior. In the past, the scholarship has been valued at five hundred dollars.

Members of the Board of Directors were, (SEATED): Glenn McLeroy, Jerry Moore, Torrance Banks. (STANDING): Wayne Taylor, Gary Ervin, Lewis McElroy, and George Harry.

All boys who had lettered in a varsity sport were eligible for membership in the Monogram Club. Prospective members were required to undergo a rigorous initiation. Then they were voted on by the old club members.

Selling Rebel license tags, Rebel stickers, football programs, and concessions at sports events were among the activities of the club. These projects served as a means to finance the work of the club and to buy Monogram jackets for the senior members.

Hi-Y Club members participated in the activities of the YMCA. They competed against Hi-Y Clubs from other schools in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg system. This competition was mainly in basketball, and games were played at the "Y".

North's Bus Drivers a Vital Asset to School

Driving to North were, (FRONT ROW): David Brannen, Lanny Horton, Cindy Wally, Odell Burton, Mack Downing. (BACK ROW): Leon Gilmore, Jerry Moore, Ronnie Rozzelle, Bill White, and Joe Cooke.

Also driving to North were, (FRONT ROW): Gail Henderson, Nancy Jordan, Evelyn Freeman, Sophia Clemmer, Edward Young. (BACK ROW): Reggie Black, William Fox, Lane Seaford, and Richard Knox.

North's bus drivers were a vital asset for the school. They saw to it that the students arrived safely at school and back home again. Each driver felt a keen responsibility and set a record to be envied.

To become a bus driver, one had to take a written test. Having passed this test, he was given a road test. If a person had a record of a wreck, he could not become a bus driver. The driver had to keep an accurate record of miles traveled, gas used, hours spent, and number of students transported.

Booster Club Sponsors Homecoming; Boosts Spirit

To boost school spirit in all activities was the purpose of North's Booster Club. Their most important activity for the year was Homecoming. Activities for the week began as each homeroom was asked to place an exhibit in the foyer with the theme, "Eliminate the Eagles." Prizes were given for the best projects.

BLUE AND WHITE DAY was held on the day of the Homecoming game. All students were asked to wear blue and white. Those who did not had to lead a cheer in assembly and appear before the Kangaroo Court during lunch.

Presenting the sponsors in assembly and at half-time of the Homecoming game was another activity of Homecoming Week sponsored by the Club. For this presentation and for the dance following the game, the theme was "The Sweetheart Tree."

Working after school was not unusual for most members of the Booster Club as they made posters to boost spirit before the games. They also sold pompons and stickers during the football season and Rebel buttons during the basketball season.

At the Rockananny, sponsored by the Booster Club, Ann Bridger and Truscott Rhodes sang folk songs. George Harry helped with the accompaniment.

Before the Homecoming game, the Booster Club planned the assembly for presentation of the sponsors. Each senior selected a flower for his sponsor just as Steve Brown was doing here for his sponsor, Linda Blakely.

Minister Wallace, leading the procession, doesn't seem to be too sad over "burying" Myers Park. Sponsored by the cheerleaders, the funeral was held in the gym during a pep rally.

Serving as drum major this year was George Eubanks, with Jerry Moore, Assistant. Taking part in several activities, the band marched in the Carrousel Parade, the Veteran's Day Parade, and the Huntersville Christmas Parade.

Band members took part in the UNC Band Day at Chapel Hill and the band contest in Marion. Outstanding members performed in the All State Band Clinic.

Band Provides Music for Varied School Events

Orchestra members were, (SEATED): Ronnie Cannon, Cathline Mahoney, Ray Chapman, Mike Lemmons, Gary Porter, Cliffton Cornelius, Bruce Porter, Tommy Plott. (STANDING): Mr. Tritt, Dawn Shoemaker, Nancy Broome, and Bill Dotger.

In its third year at North, the orchestra increased in both membership and importance. In addition to developing the student's talents, the class provided a release for tensions built up during the school day.

Directed by Mr. Larry Phillips, North's stage band was called the Blue Notes. By participating in various programs throughout the year, members of the band showed their interest in music and their willingness to co-operate with the music department. The Blue Notes helped to provide the music at the Fall Festival, the Miss North Mecklenburg Pageant, many of the chorus' concerts, and the presentation of sponsors at Homecoming.

Lettergirls were, (KNEELING): Nancy Puckett; Shirley Baucom; Sarah Brashear. (STANDING): Coy Blackburn; Debbie McLaurin, Head; Susan Davis; Sandra Raborn; Dianne Stewart; Carol Caldwell; Marleen Alexander; Sandra Chitwood; Melda Williams; and Michelene Long.

Lettergirls, Majorettes Add Color to Rebel Band

Adding gaity to the band, the Lettergirls and Majorettes participated in many activities. These girls marched in the Carrousel Parade, the Huntersville Christmas Parade, and the Veteran's Day Parade. In the Carrousel Parade, the Lettergirls were awarded the third place ribbon. At "State Band Day" in Chapel Hill, the two groups performed with the band.

Majorettes sold programs at basketball games for Key Club. Lettergirls donated the white berets worn by a special group in the band.

Received as a gift from the '67 Lettergirls and Majorettes, the band banner was carried for the first time this year, adding much color to the band.

Majorettes were, (STANDING): Cathy Lawing, Lynda Aldred, Worda James, Neal Latane, Becky Tate, Janet Perry. (KNEELING): was Marilyn Ferris, Head.

Chess Club, Sub-Juniors Prove Active in School

Meeting when the Student Council met, the Chess Club provided a time of pleasure in playing the game of chess in competition with fellow students.

Held in April and May, the main activity of the club was the annual tournament. The club also sent a representative to compete in the chess tournament in Charlotte.

For girls, the Sub-Juniors provided opportunities for service to the Derita community. Some of their projects included holding a children's reading hour at the Derita Library, visiting Thompson's Orphanage, and adopting a senior citizen whom they visited.

Barbara MacKay was elected the state vice-president at the annual jamboree held in Hamlet in August.

Under the direction of Mr. James Coggins, the North Mecklenburg Choir represented the school through song. To be a member of the Choir, each interested student was auditioned.

Various activities of this group were the spring and the fall concerts and a Christmas concert for the PTA. They also performed at the Festival in the Park.

To make up the Rebel Singers, thirty-two singers were chosen from the Choir. This group performed for various clubs and organizations within the Charlotte area.

In the spring, the entire chorus competed in the Choral Contest held at Ovens Auditorium. Representatives were also sent from the Choir to both the Mars Hill and the Greensboro Choral Clinics.

For the past two years, the students in the chorus classes have presented a musical drama, but plans were indefinite about this year.

For the PTA at Christmas, the choral groups gave a concert of Christmas music. For the religious part of the program the students wore robes. Mr. Coggins directed all of this portion of the program.

Singing in the Christmas program were the Choir as well as other members of the chorus classes.

Thespians, Art Club Present Work to Student Body

In its second year at North, the Thespians encouraged its members to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self-control, and to appreciate dramatic literature and its techniques. Membership was limited to drama students who had gained a certain number of points for an outstanding performance in the area of stage productions.

In the fall, the club attended the play "The Comedy of Errors." It was presented in Greensboro by the National Repertory Theatre. The group attended other plays and presented one to the students at the end of the year.

To give students additional knowledge in art and to inform the school about art were two of the purposes of the North Art Club. Included in the programs of the club were field trips and guest speakers. They worked with the chorus on decorations for the musicals. An art exhibit was held in the spring.

Last year, Noi Tongma received an award for work in art. Mrs. McFarland presented it.

Masqueraders Compete in Drama Festival

At the Interclub Carnival, the Masqueraders operated the Psychedelic Soul Cellar. Outside to attract monied customers were Steve Kepley, Jackie Welch, Lief Swanson, and Jerry Cranford, (SEATED).

North's dramatic club, The Masqueraders, strived to promote the quality and interest in dramatic arts. In November and in the spring, the club presented two three-act plays. They assisted with the musical which was held in February. They also competed in the district drama festival with a one-act play.

There must have been a funny picture in the files. Photography Editor Marilyn Ferris and Photographer Dennis Black were amused over something.

Could you believe this was the last page of the ads! Mrs. Barfield, Advisor, and Linda Stuart, Business Manager, were happy to see the last page go.

Busy with layouts were Melda Williams and Janet Ward, editors of the Viking. They were kept busy seeing that all the work was ready and helping to do a great deal of it themselves.

To learn how to put out the best yearbook possible, Melda Williams and Rosser Cartner attended the SIPA convention in Virginia.

Viking staff members began planning the new book as soon as the last signature of the '67 Viking went to press. Layouts were drawn during the spring, and staff members devoted much of their vacation to selling ads. In the fall, the staff was divided into groups, each to work on a different section of the annual. "Spirit" was chosen as the theme.

As usual, the first deadline crept up quietly and caught the staff off guard; however they made most of the quota. As the seemingly endless succession of deadlines continued, the staff became more determined to get their work done and less sure of their sanity.

From Columbia, the '67 Viking won a first place award, which fact spurred the '68 staff to do even better. The payoff came, however, when the Viking came back from the printer and was in the hands of the students.

Pictures, pictures! Where to put all of them? It seemed there was a surplus until they were identified and put into place. All one had to do was follow the layouts. Shirley Baucom, Classes Editor; Jackie Swicegood; and Mrs. Cooke, Advisor, seemed pleased that they had accomplished so much.

Included in the membership of the PTA Executive Council were Mrs. O. D. Hudson, Mr. Andy Henderson, Mr. W. A. Hough, Mrs. R. F. Cobb, and Mrs. Alex S. Garrison.

PTA Sponsors Miss North Mecklenburg Contest

Sponsoring several activities throughout the year, North's Parent-Teacher Association served the school.

As a fund raising project, they sponsored the Miss North Mecklenburg Beauty Contest as well as the Fall Festival.

Following the first business session, an open house was held. Parents visited the classes and became acquainted with the teachers.

In February, students presented a science program and exhibited projects which were the result of their class work. In the spring, all the fine arts departments presented a musical program and an art exhibit.

Working with the PTA as it sponsored the symposium, along with other organizations, was North's student committee. They were Miss Eleanor Rigney, Chairman; Mrs. Susan Steele; Bruce Porter; Elizabeth Bradford; and Laura Blair.

Marnite Shuford played a classical selection at the Fall Festival Talent Show.

Singing "Somewhere My Love," Judy Howard also took part in the Talent Show.

Students Participate in PTA Sponsored Talent Show

Opening with a loud rollicking number, "The Checkmates" came on strong. Most of the program was made up of psychedelic sounds and colors, much to the enjoyment of the students. "Out of this world" could easily be used to describe the final number of the "Young Ages."

A sock hop and a basketball throwing contest climaxed an evening of fun for most of the students. Furnishing some of the music for the dance were the "Bartoks."

Flashing colored lights and jerking bodies marked the closing number by "The Young Ages," of which group Johnny Barkley was a member. This was a real psychedelic experience.

Also playing for the sock hop were the "Chordons." They added their sound to that of the "Bartoks."

"It's What's Happening in the Arts Today"

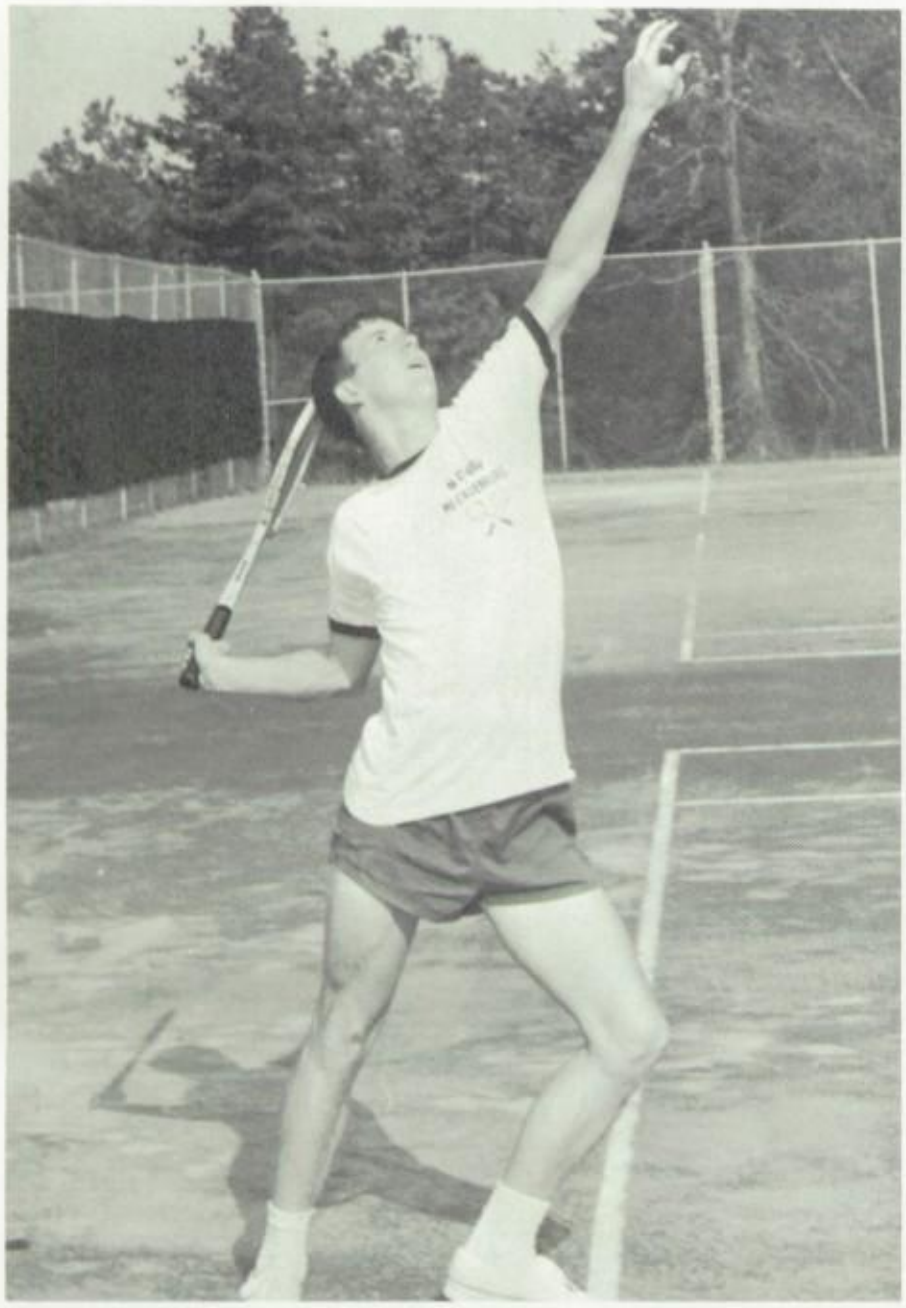
From the various fields of art, the panel for the Symposium was made up of Mr. John Merritt, Mr. Raul Spivak, Miss Maud Gatewood, Mr. Duncan Noble, and Mr. Gerald Honaker.

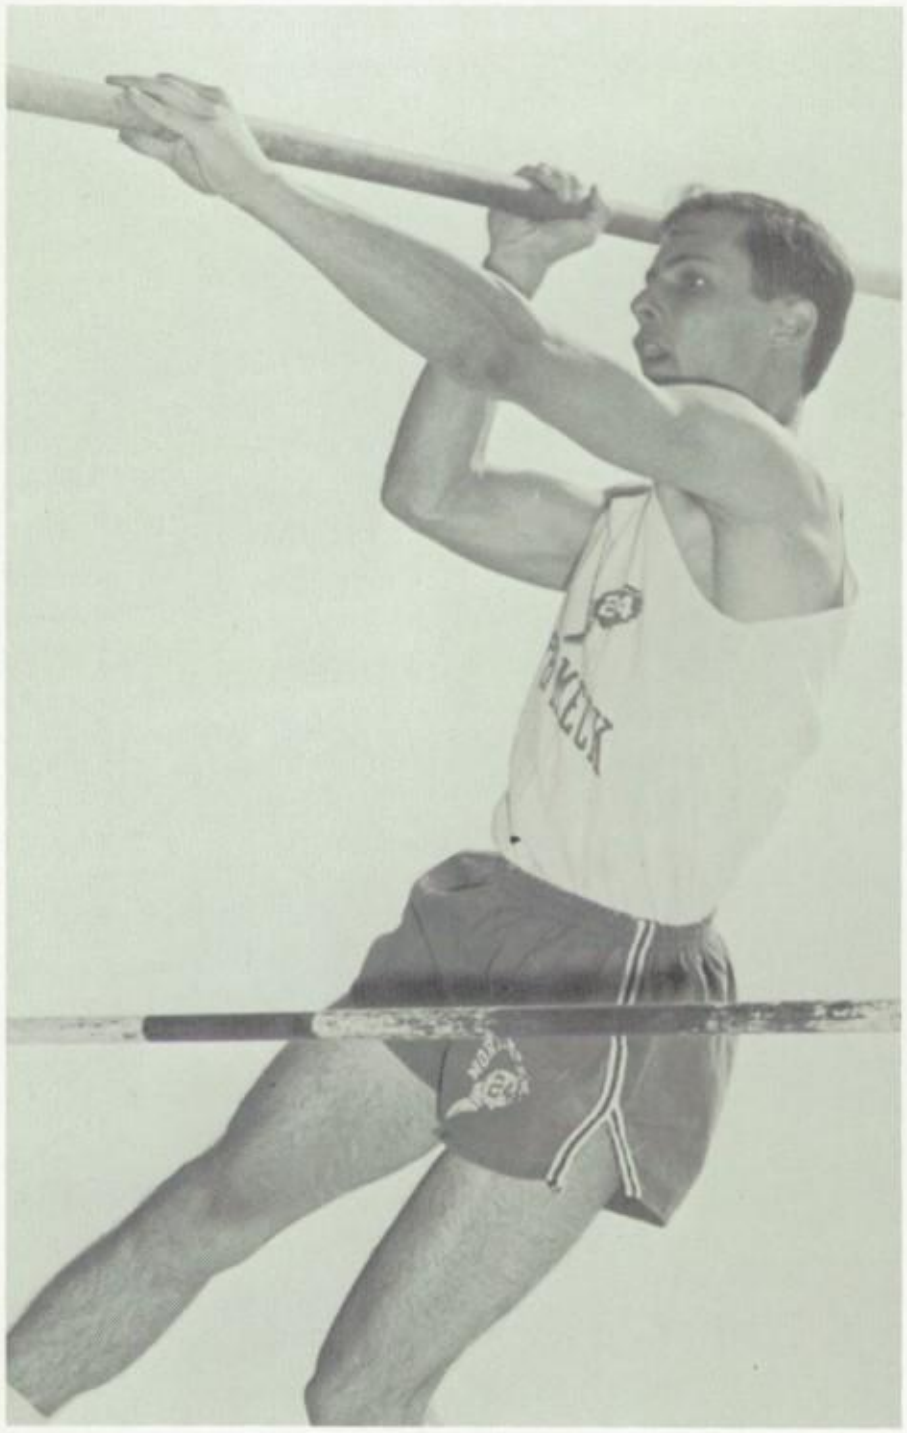
Mr. Dick Banks, of the Charlotte Obser ver, was moderator for the panel.

Mrs. Steele, drama teacher, was amused by some of the remarks of Mr. John Merritt, as he talked to the audience.

On October 19, North held its sixth annual J. Walton Wilson Symposium. It was sponsored by the PTA and other local organizations. This year, the topic was "It's What's Happening in the Arts Today."

With the moderator, Mr. Dick Banks, were five panel members. These members were Miss Maud Gatewood, art teacher at UNC-C; Mr. Gerald Honaker, director of college theatre and chairman of the speech and drama department at Catawba College; Mr. Duncan Noble, a member of the American Ballet Theatre; Mr. John Merritt, a sculptor and teacher at Gaston College; and Mr. Raul Spivak, an internationally known pianist.





ATHLETICS

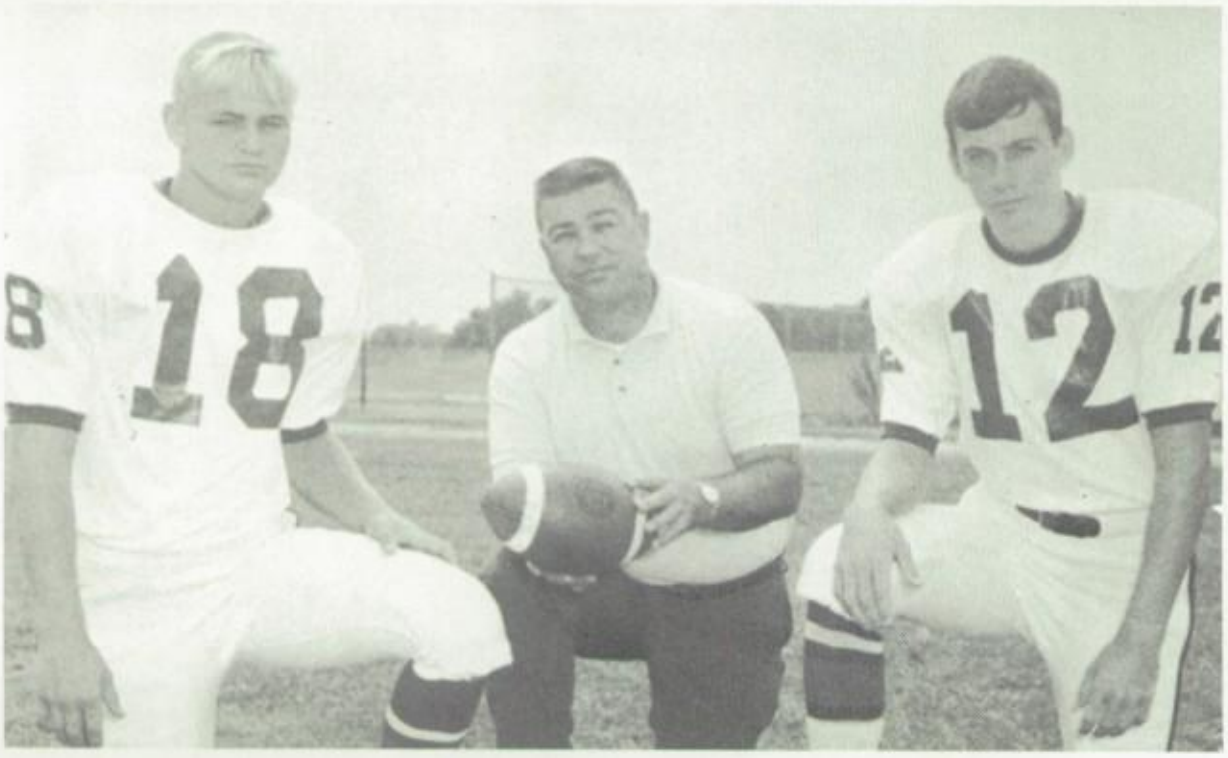
Fleetfooted Roger Sherrill was on his way to scoring another six points. Seemed that the opposing team was trailing behind.

Rebel Football Team Posts Overall Winning Season



Captains of the team were Chuck Whisenant and Glenn Morris. Head Coach was Mr. Mack Haynes.

Posting a winning season, 6-3-1, the Rebels, led by quarterback Glenn Morris, picked up an average of 28 points per game.

Morris carried the ball 72 times for 294 yards. He completed 95 of 171 pass attempts and scored 14 touchdowns.

Whisenant carried 30 times for 182 yards and scored 30 points. Connor carried 32 times for 218 yards and also scored 30 points.

In addition, Simmons, with 90 carries, moved the ball 369 yards and scored 42 points. Sherrill, in 73 carries, picked up 521 yards and scored 82 points. In extra points, Sherrill made 34 of 41 attempts.

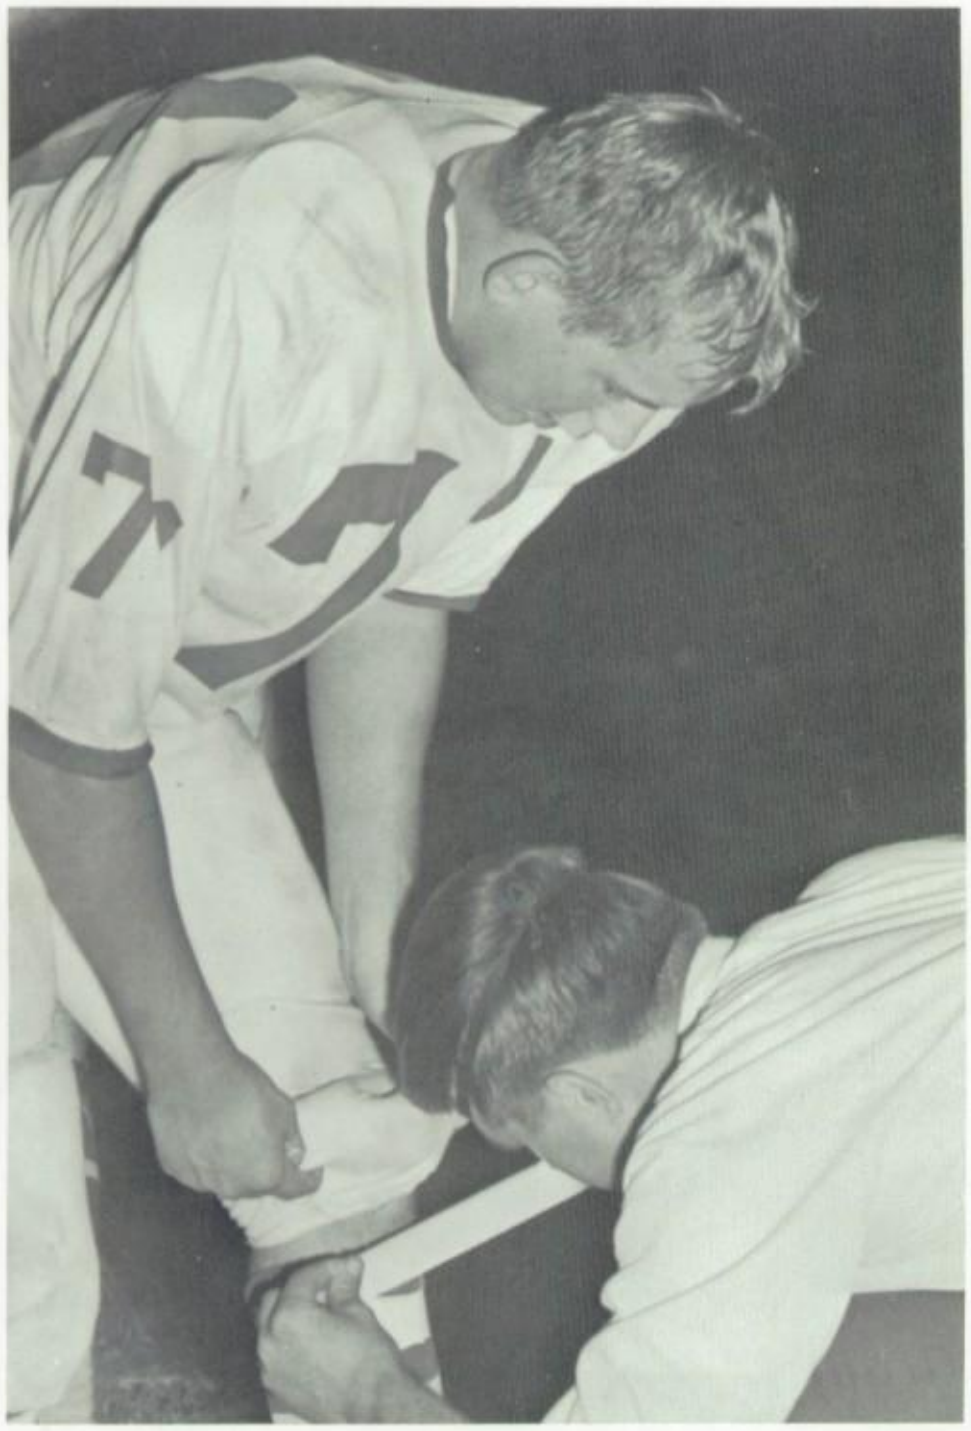
Offensively, outstanding seniors were tackles Wade Mizelle and Mike Wood, guards Steve Woollen and Sammy Tesh, and center Jerry Beard.

Defensively, standouts were ends Jimmy Lloyd and Brad Humphries and tackles Floyd Long and Ken Dresser.

Outstanding also were junior tackles John Barbee and John Alexander, as well as junior linebackers Tom Jones and George Whiteside.

Using a strong arm on an East Eagle until Wade Mizelle (73) could take him down, Frank Simmons (33) gained yardage for the Rebs.

After a quick pitch from Morris, Mike Connor ran around right end to gain several yards.



Being a manager or trainer was not a romantic job. It called for getting the players ready for practices and games. Bobby Benton and Louis McElroy were always ready to do their jobs. Here he taped Mike Wood's injured knee (TOP PICTURE). (BELOW): Lewis McElroy was on the job helping adjust a player's gear.

Once he got going, he was not easy to stop. Seems the East Eagle found one was not enough to pull quarterback Glenn Morris to a sudden stop.

It was close, but Frank Simmons caught a pass from Morris to score in the North-East game.

Little Rebs Average Four Touchdowns Per Game

Scoring a total of 228 points to their opponent's 69, the Little Rebs ran up a 6-2-1 season. Averaging almost four touchdowns per game, they held their opponents to only a little more than one. Their victories included a 54-6 romp over Olympic and a 38-0 run over Independence. The leading scorer was Willie Dixon with 13 touchdowns.

Tommy Stover reached out to gather in a long pass.

Taking off around right end, Raymond Ross hoped for a touchdown.

Serving the Cross Country Team were Steve Brown, Captain; Torbjorn Hogberg, honorary captain; Eddie Ferrell, co-captain; and Gary Ervin, co-captain.

Steve Brown, Gary Stewart, and Torbjorn Hogberg entered the roughest part of the course during practice.

Cross Country, Track Teams Put Hard Hours in Practice

Inexperience was one of the major problems of the cross country team as almost all of the runners were new this year. Although there was a great deal of effort on the part of the team, the season could not be called one of North's most successful in cross country running. Having gained experience, the team should look forward to a good record in fall of 1968.

Led by the scoring of co-captains Joe Abernathy and Doug McElroy, the track team tried for a successful season. Steve Brown was also a leading scorer.

Joe led in points with 59, followed by Steve with 48 and Doug with 42. North was represented in the state meet by Shaw Smith, Joe Abernathy, and Doug McElroy.

Most Valuable Player was Joe Abernathy, and the Best Sportsmanship trophy went to Doug McElroy.

A miss is as good as a mile, just so long as one clears the bar. Steve Brown barely made it over in practice.

Rocky Stokes noticed the photographer just as he cleared the hurdle. It was good it was practice rather than a competitive meet.

Co-Captains Have Best Records on Wrestling Team

Posting a 5-6 over-all record, the grapplers had a 5-4 conference record, Wayne Taylor was undefeated through the regular season with a 10-0 record.

Pete Canipe, Allen Barnette, and Tom Jones each racked up a 9-1 record. The next best were 5-5 by Ken Dresser and 5-5-1 by Rodney Washam.

North's Swimming Team Takes First Place in Meet

Ranked in the top five in the state and in the top twenty in the nation, North's swimming team had a successful season with a 4-1 record.

In the East Carolina Invitational Meet, the Rebs won a traveling trophy for first place. John Long set two records at the meet. North placed second at the Southern Interscholastic Championships.

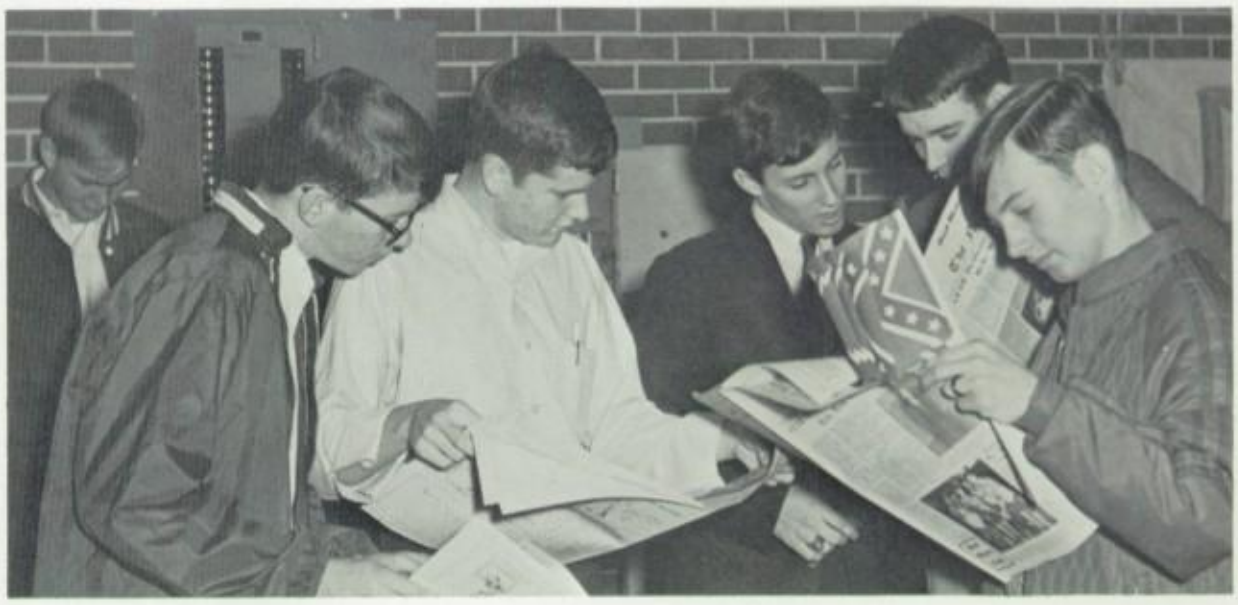
Rebel Basketball Team Tries and Tries Again

Roger Sherrill tried a hook shot in the game with Gastonia Ashley.

After dropping the first four games, the Rebels won three, including an 85-51 romp over Garinger. For the remainder of the regular season, they produced only two more wins. In the last game, North buried Ashley, defending state champions, by twenty-two points. In the first play-offs to determine those teams that would play in the tournament, North's team was eliminated.

Glenn Morris led the team in scoring with 320 points. He had six games with 20 points or more, including 28 in the game against Olympic and 27 against Independence. He also led in rebounds. Roger Sherrill was second in total points with 183.



A few Rebels gathered after a pep rally to read the "Beat Myers Park" edition of the paper, which came out on the day of the game. Then the snow came and the game was postponed.

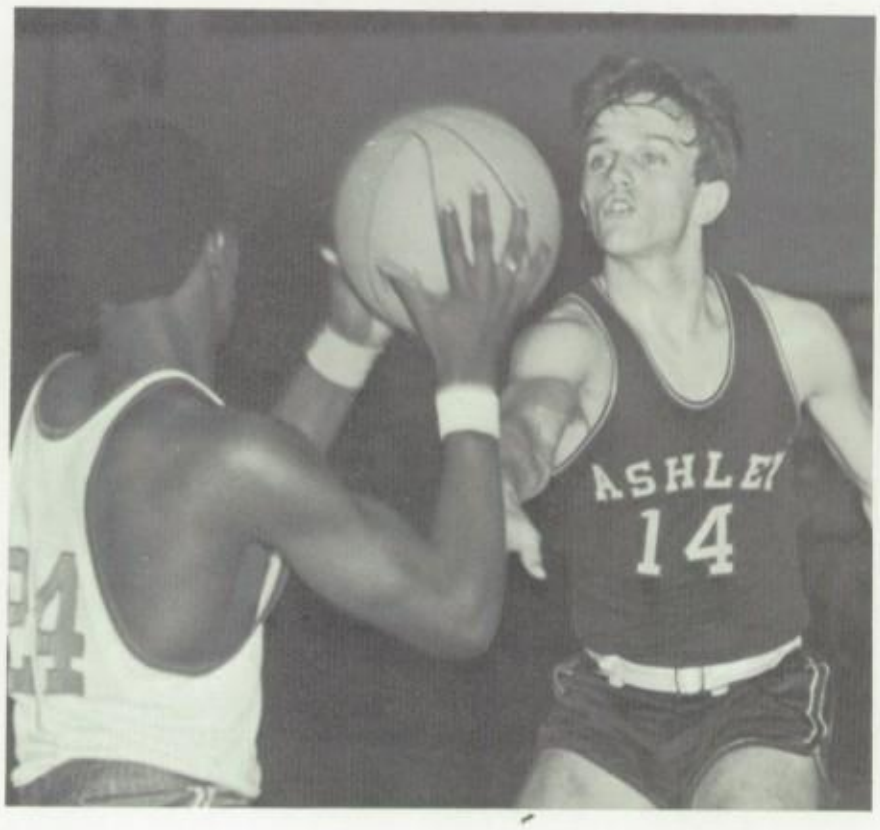
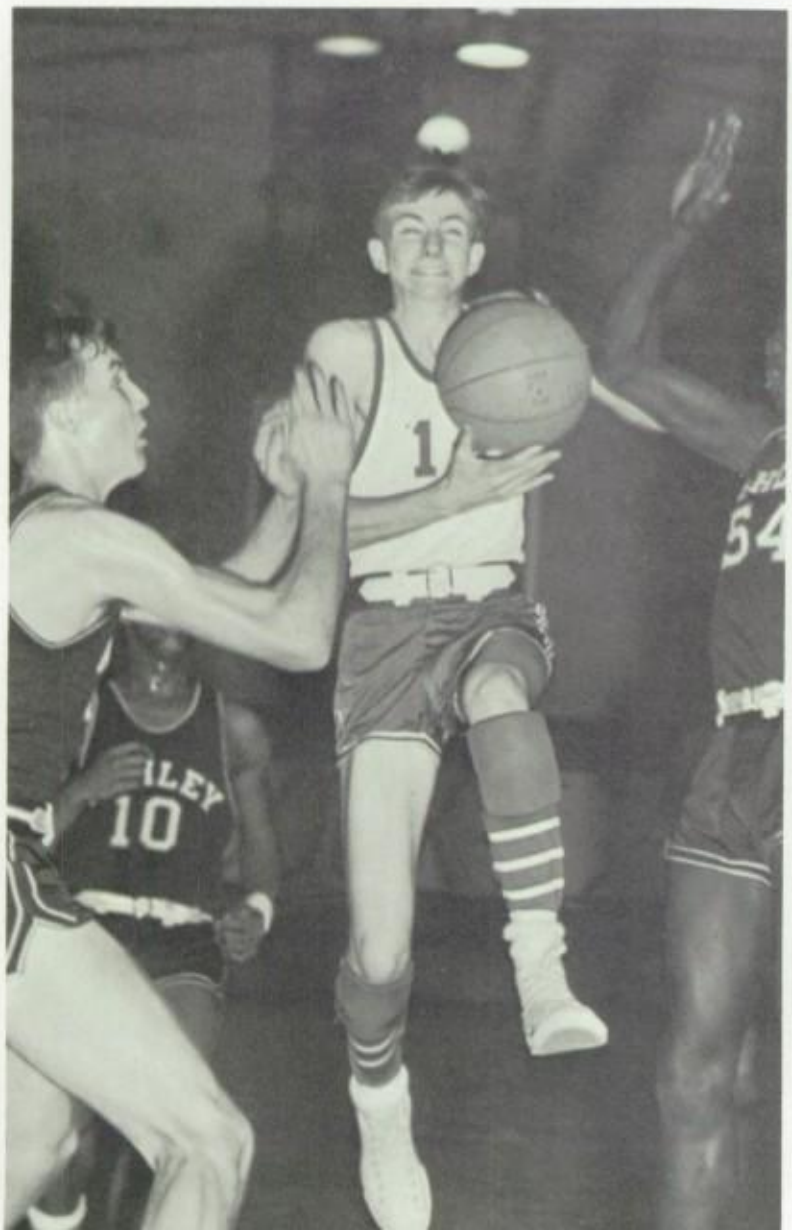
The grip of teamwork and a few final words from Coach Pigg helped the Rebs come back with spirit.

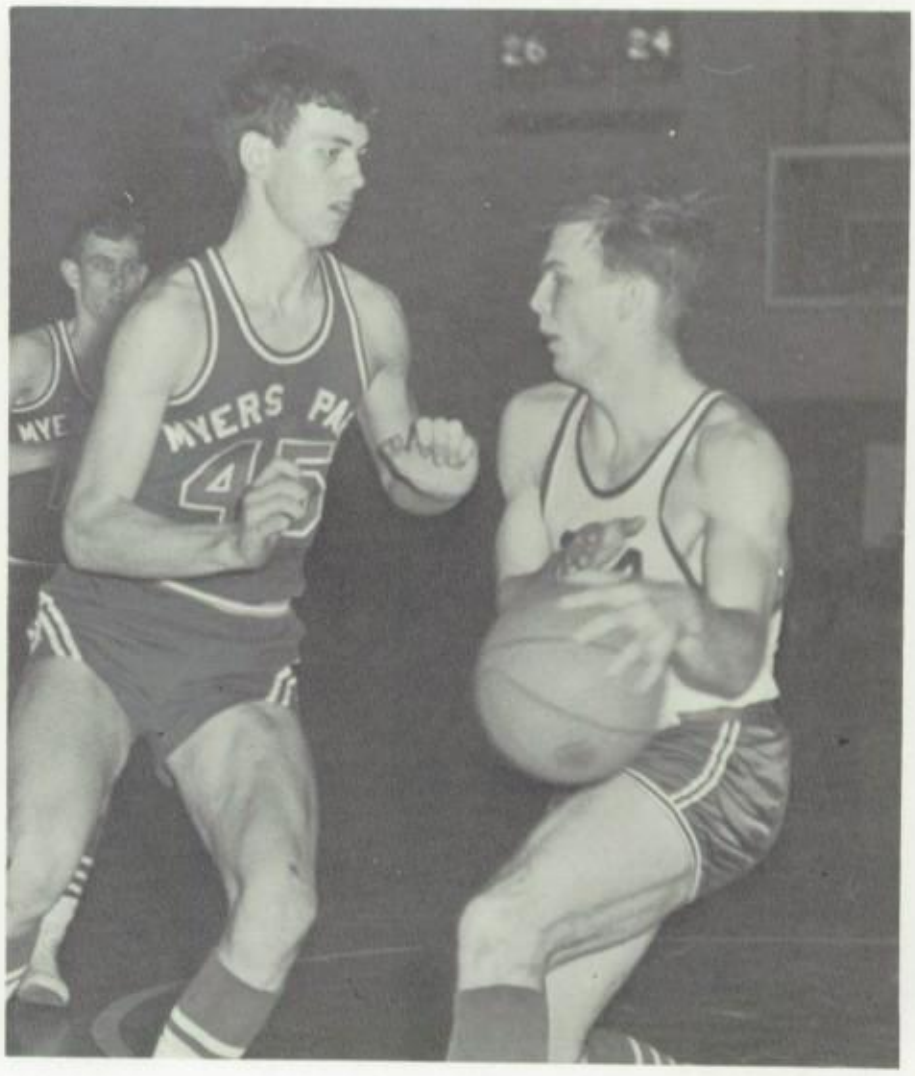


Finding himself pressed by Ashley, Larry Sherrill had to pass off possibly to Neil.

With a look of "do or die," Walt Neil headed through two defenders to get to the basket.



"Pull your man off to one side and then move to the other," seemed to be the thing Sherrill had in mind.



Coach Pigg found that he could explain the play better by drawing the diagram on the floor during time out.

George Eubanks tried a jump shot over the hands of his defender.

After being fouled, Glenn Morris got a chance to add an extra point or two. Glenn added quite a few during the season.

Little Rebs Roll Up Winning Record, 13 - 5

Getting through his opponent's defense, Robin Rhodes tried for a lay-up.

Under the leadership of Coach Bruce Hayes, the Little Rebs had 13 wins to 5 losses during the regular season. They averaged 53 points per game and held their opponents to a 40-point average.

Scrapping from start to finish, the team gave the spectators plenty of excitement. Johnny Patterson led the scoring with 209 points. Robin Rhodes was second with 192.

In the tournament play-off, the Little Rebs won their first round over South, advancing to play Myers Park in the second game.

Rebel Tennis Team Places Third in Conference

Placing third in the conference, the Rebel tennis team posted a 9-2 record. They also placed third in the regional tournament.

Vic Blackwell, chosen for Best Sportsmanship, led the team with ten wins and one loss. Steve White, Alan White, and Lyn Murphy each had a 9-2 record. Most Valuable Player was John Woods. Mr. Howard Barnhardt coached the team.

Vic Blackwell, North's number one player, showed his skill with a backhand stroke.

Practice in the afternoons made for good hitting in games. Terry Mayes led the Rebs in hitting in the '67 season.

Rebels Wrap up Second Conference

With a season record of fifteen wins and only three losses, North won its second consecutive Western 4-A Conference title in regular play.

To begin the season, North set up a seven-game winning streak. Against East, Sherrill and Caldwell pitched a one-hitter. After Garinger fell, Caldwell pitched a two-hitter against South.

As the Rebs romped over Myers Park, Whisenant had five RBI's and Caldwell, a three-run homer. Caldwell pitched another two-hitter over West.

Harding was the first to take a game from the Rebs and was the only team to win two against them. South was the only other team to hand the Rebs a defeat.

Sherrill pitched a two-hitter against Myers Park; pitcher Oxidine followed by striking out fifteen in the next game against West Charlotte.

Ending the regular season with a 22-2 romp over Huss, the Rebs scored 11 runs before Huss could put a man out. Terry Mayes led the hitting with a grand slam homer and a triple. Caldwell and Todd also hit home runs.

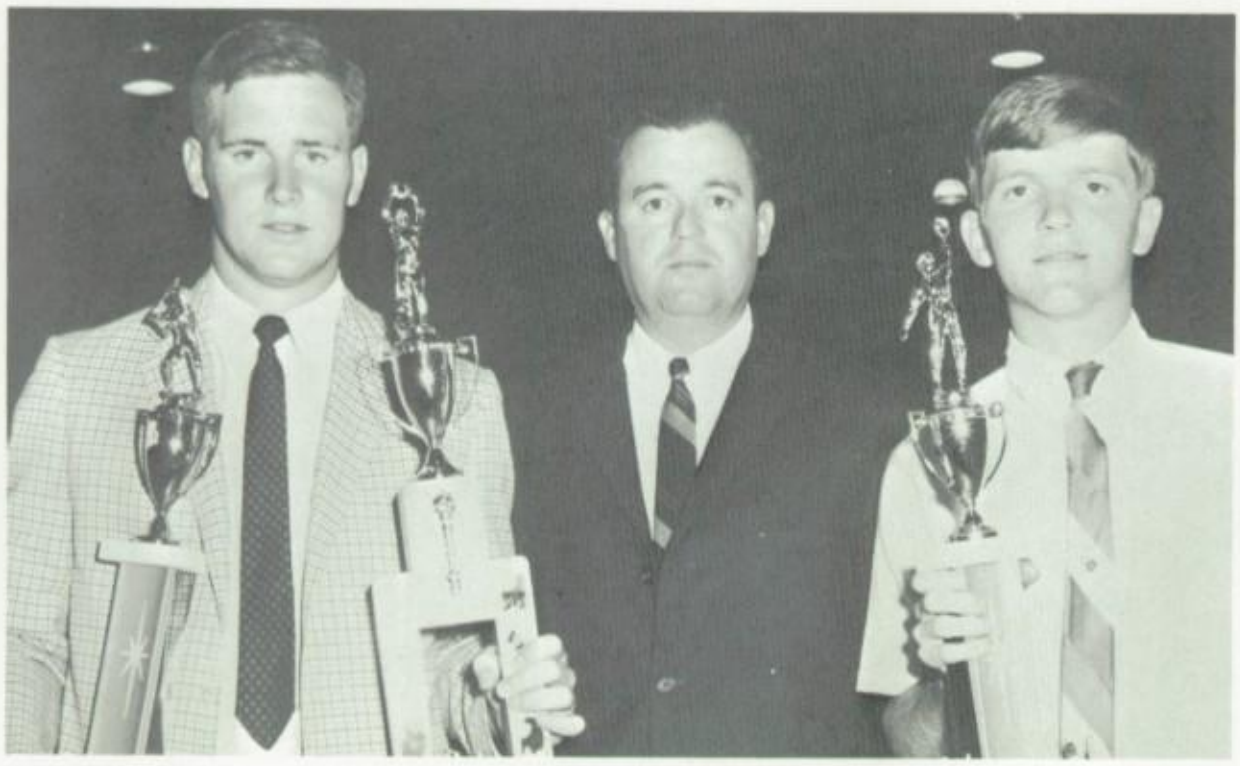
In the playoffs, North took Salisbury for a 7-0 win; however, the Rebs lost to West 5-0 and lost the opportunity to play for the state championship. In the Salisbury game, Roger Sherrill pitched a one hitter and hit a home run to help post the 7-0 victory.

Against West in the playoff, Reb Glenn Morris attempted to steal second.

Caldwell, Mayes Get Top Honors



Pitcher Buddy Caldwell, winner of the Most Valuable Player Award, and Terry Mayes, winner for Best Sportsmanship, helped make a winning season for their coach, Mr. Bill Ross. Buddy also won the award for the Senior Athlete of the Year.

During the game with West, North was on the losing end. Coach Ross talked with the team, trying to pep them up and determine just what they could do to get a hit off West's pitcher, Beam.

Salisbury shortshop, Doug Swaim, dropped a throw to second base, which enabled North's Kelsey McCall to remain a runner. Two plays later, Kelsey scored the first run against Salisbury in the playoffs.

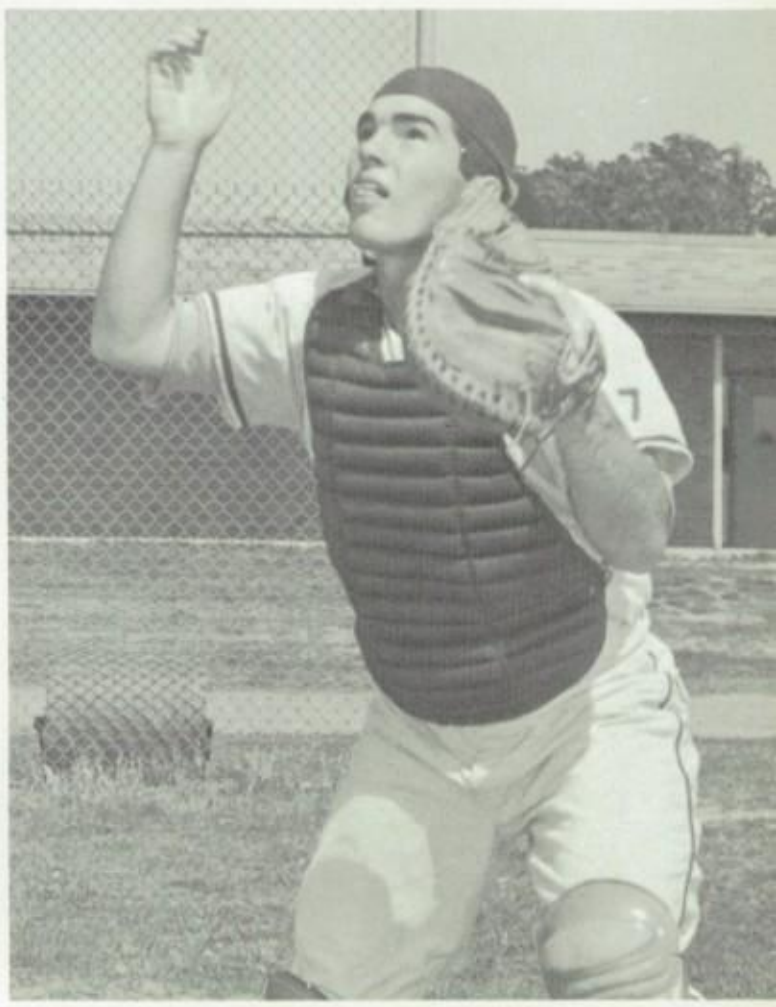
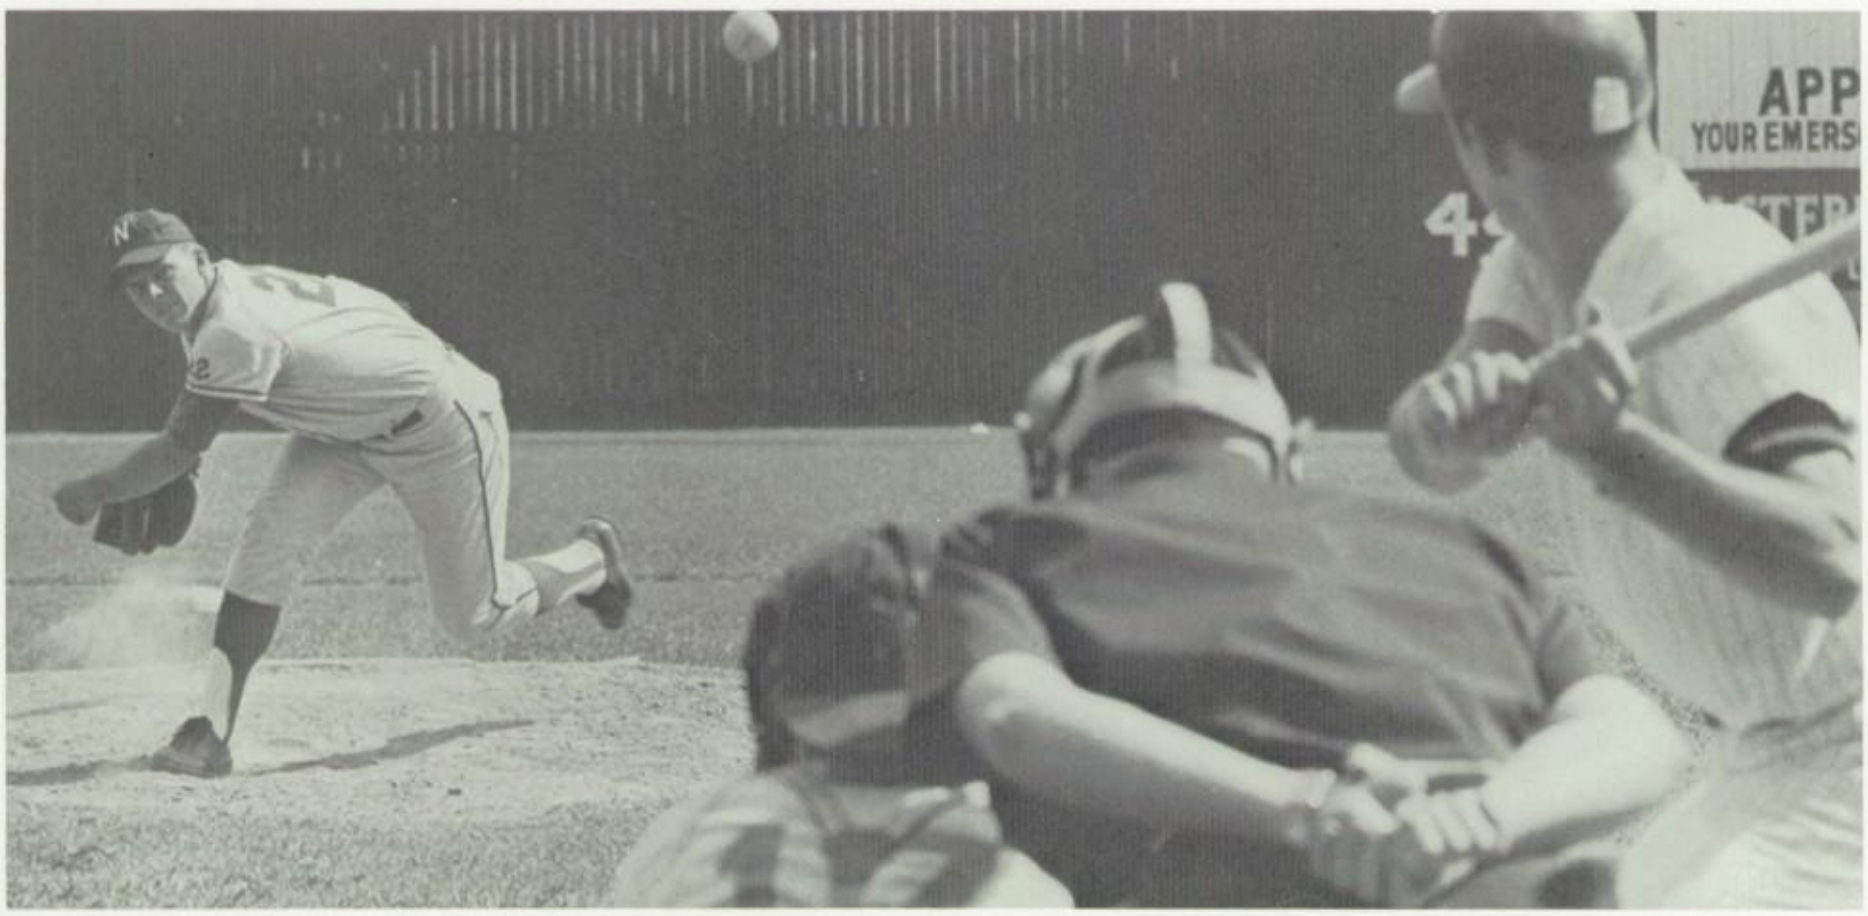
It takes quite a bit of stretching sometime to gather that ball in and make the out. Here Clay Todd was improving his skill.

Throwing off his mask, Wayne Taylor waited for that pop foul to fall right into his glove.



In the district playoff for a chance to play for the state championship, Roger Sherrill was the pitcher. He gave up only one hit in his victory over Salisbury.



Cheerleaders Use Ingenuity, Originality

North's Varsity Cheerleaders were elected in the spring of '67. When school began in September, two sophomores were added to the squad. Another addition was a different uniform to be used in warm weather. This was a pant dress, just the thing for action.

Along with leading pep rallies, cheerleaders were in charge of special activities, such as the "marriage of Miss North Mecklenburg to Mr. Ashley." Burial services in respect of Myers Park were held by the cheerleaders for the student body.

To make pep rallies interesting for the students, the cheerleaders used ingenuity and originality.

North's Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were (KNEELING): Sylvia Hefner, Head. (STANDING): Mary Nell Cavin; Glenda Banker; Marsha Rockholt; Marguerite Ferris; and Pam Swearngan.

Reb baseball fans turned out to see the game between the West Indians and North.

Many of North's football games were played at Memorial Stadium, and the crowd followed the team. LaDonna Robinette; Martha Ewart, mascot; and Wanda Bridges helped add to the spirit of the game as they led a victory cheer.

GAA Plays Host to Area Field Hockey Play Day

North's Girls' Athletic Association promoted a program of athletics for high school girls. Through this program, girls learned sportsmanship and developed character.

Activities included the winning of the city-wide track meet at Myers Park. Held at North, all GAA organizations in The Charlotte-Mecklenburg area attended a field hockey play day.

Three track meets were held for the Charlotte area. GAA's also attended the state-wide Play Day in High Point and the Play Day at UNC-G.

Last year the GAA earned 2nd place in the state at Greensboro and 1st place citywide at Myers Park. Becky Jackson was the only sophomore to win a shield. Kitty Jones won a national pin, and the Huntersville Woman's Club presented a trophy to Kitty.

During the field day exercises at North, Brenda Puckett tried to steal the ball from her opponent.

Junior and Senior Girls Compete in Carrousel Pageant

From nominations made in home-rooms, twenty-four junior and senior girls were chosen to compete for the honor of representing North in the Carolinas Carrousel Parade and Ball.

During the pageant, the girls, in formal wear, were judged on poise and appearance. After three eliminations, six finalists were chosen. Each was judged on her ability to express herself in an impromptu situation.

At the climax of the program, Sandra Raborn was crowned Princess North Mecklenburg by her predecessor, Marcia Ross.

John Kilgo, of Davidson, acted as Master of Ceremonies. Judges were Mr. Earl Crawford, Sr., executive vice-president of the Carrousel; Mrs. Ginger Heath, a former Miss Monroe; Mr. Brooks Lindsey, of WSOC; Mrs. Doris Martin, secretary of the Charlotte Merchants' Association; and Mrs. Kitty Ward, Public Relations director of the Carrousel.

Entertainment was provided by singer-guitarists Betty Moore and Joan Wilson, the Rebel Singers, and organist Woody Washam.

Finalists in the Carolinas Carrousel competition for the title of Princess North Mecklenburg was Nancy Dickinson, first runner-up; Sandra Raborn, the winner; and Wanda Bridges, second runner-up.

Serving as Master of Ceremonies was Mr. John Kilgo.

Wearing her crown as the new Carrousel Princess, Sandy Raborn was both excited and happy.

CESP Brings Torbjorn to Share Experiences with Rebels

From Sweden, Torbjorn Hogberg came to North for this year on an exchange program. His American "brother" was Curtis Smith.

Selected by the Charlotte Exchange Student Program, Claes Torbjorn Hogberg came from Stockholm, Sweden, to spend a year at North. At once the students gave him the American nickname, Toby.

His American "family" were the C. Shaw Smiths of Davidson. Curtis Smith, his "brother," had spent the summer with the Hogberg family in Sweden through another phase of the CESP.

Already fluent in English when he arrived in August, Toby quickly adjusted to life as a North Rebel. He was made an honorary member of several clubs, including the Key Club and the Honor Society. He also participated in cross country, through which sport he received a letter.

In order to come here as an exchange student, Toby was required to make a special application and write an autobiography. Applicants were screened on the basis of character and personality.

Toby's friendly, easy-going nature and his desire to meet people made many friends for him. All the Rebels regretted his having to return to Sweden, but their best wishes went with him.

In September, the IRC, the French and the Spanish Clubs honored Toby with a reception in the school library. Toby was the first in line for refreshments, followed by Doug Ranson, Eddie Ferrell, and Jim Redding. Serving were Pam Davis and Susan Overcash.

Toby joined right into the activities of the school like a true Rebel. He danced with Jane Seay at a dance held in the gym.

Homecoming Week a Time of Excitement, Activity

Chosen by athletes and other senior boys to be their sponsors were (FRONT ROW) Katy Coley; Kay Pender; Susan Davis; Barbara Holder; Teresa Stinson; Laura Ann Wally, crownbearer; Marilyn Ferris, Debbie Phillips; Brenda Richardson; Terry Rockholt. (ROW TWO) Vickie Barkley; Janice Nunn; Nancy Bumharner; Neal Latane; Carol Grice; Libbie Stroud; Cindy Griffith; Sandy Raborn; Tawana Nivens. (ROW THREE) Shirley Baucom; Emilie Garmon; Bonnie Maxwell; Susan Condrey; Nancy Dickinson; Linda Blakely; Michelene Long; Debby Wally; Wanda Bridges. (BACK ROW) Carol Caldwell; Cindy Wally; Denyse Lominac; Myra Triplett; LaDonna Robinette; Hope Minter; Vickie McConnell; Carolyn Kerns; and Jane Seay.

Homecoming week found most Rebels in a state of excitement and activity. Early in the week, homeroom projects, using the theme "Eliminate the Eagles" were set up and the judged to determine which room had best expressed its spirit.

Later, senior athletes presented their sponsors in a special assembly. The boys then voted on the sponsors and the top five were named as finalists. When the student body voted on these five, Wanda Bridges was selected Homecoming Queen.

Crowned at half-time at the East-North game, Wanda reigned over the Homecoming dance. For the dance and for the presentation assembly, the theme was "The Sweetheart Tree."

George White, Beck Hefner, Lonnie Snyder, Denyse Lominac, and Kelsy McCall enjoyed refreshments at the Homecoming Dance.

Unbelievable, but wonderful! That was the feeling of Wanda Bridges as her name was called out as the new Homecoming Queen. Looking on were George White, Katy Coley, Brayant Jordan, and Sandy Raborn.

Hunter Edwards and Laura Ann Wally were the crown bearers at the Homecoming festivities.

After having been crowned, Wanda received a dozen red roses. Then she flashed one of her biggest smiles for the spectators.

Superior Leadership, Service, Scholorship Recognized

Nominated on the basis of superiority in leadership, service, character, and scholarship, twenty-three seniors earned their place in the Honors Section of the Viking. All of them have been involved in serving the school. Their participation has been marked by perseverance, citizenship, and devotion. Each has served in his own way so as to reflect all of these characteristics.

Point value is attached to the number of nominations by classmates and of teacher approvals to determine their being included in this section. The Viking is proud to honor them.

Students Recognized for Outstanding Contributions

Judy Kelly and Barbara McKay represented North at the Wildacres Human Relations Conference. This conference is held in the summer, and only rising seniors attend.

Derita Optimists, represented by Mr. Ed Hayes, presented trophies to Janet Ward and Lewis McElroy during Youth Appreciation Week.

Held annually at Little Switzerland, the Wildacres Human Relations Conference included meetings and discussions with college students. Delegates were selected for their leadership and citizenship.

During Youth Appreciation Week, the Derita Optimists recognized Lewis McElroy and Janet Ward for their contributiosn to North. Janet and Lewis, presidents of two of the school's service clubs, participated in several activities of the Optimist-sponsored program.

Twelve rising seniors represented North at Girl's and Boy's States, sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary. Delegates learned about politics by participating in the government of mock cities. Election of state officers climaxed the week's events.

Senior Girls Outstanding in Business, Homemaking

DAR Good Citizen was Emilie Garmon.

Kathy Burgess was chosen for the AMS Award.

LaDonna Robinette won the Homemaking Award.

Recipient of the DAR Citizenship Award was Emilie Garmon. Emilie became involved in school and community affairs. She was an active member in the Civinettes and served the school in many ways.

Each year the teachers in the commercial department choose an outstanding senior in the field of business education. This year's recipient was Kathy Burgess. She is also eligible to compete for a scholarship given to two seniors in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools.

LaDonna Robinette, a senior, was named the 1968 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She finished first in a written knowledge and attitude test for senior girls. She received a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, the sponsor.

Each month, homerooms nominate students who have made an outstanding contribution in some way during that month. These nominations are then considered by a special committee, and the Student Council awards a Student of the Month certificate to the person selected.

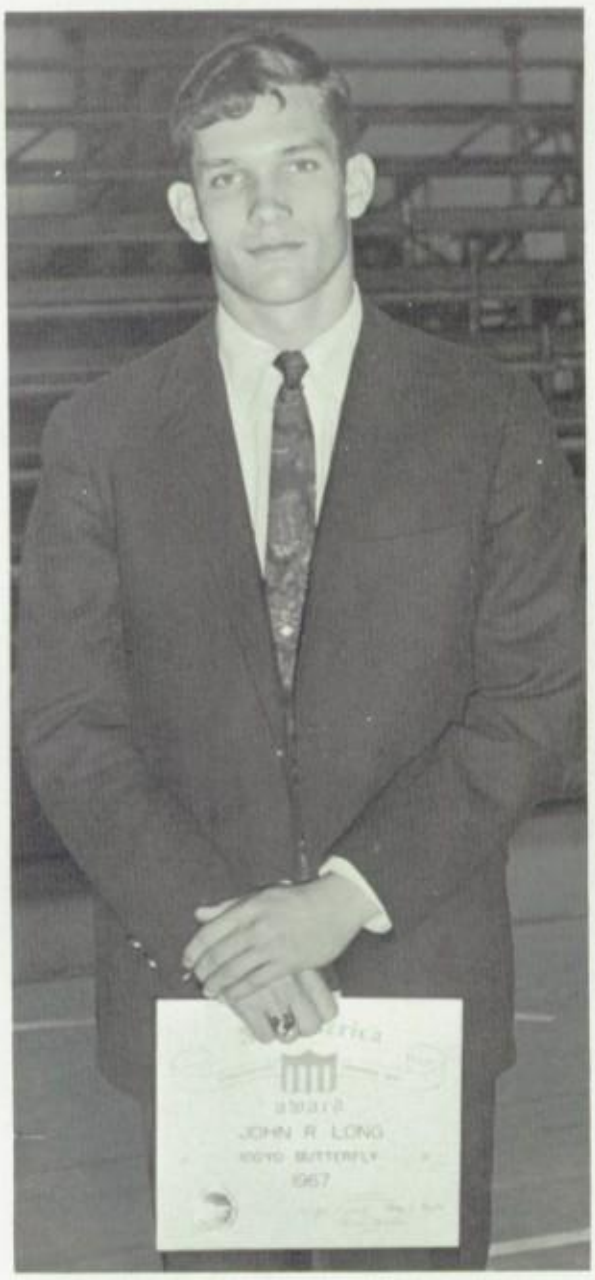
Chosen for the first three months of school were Roger Sherrill, John Barbee, and Emilie Garmon for their individual accomplishments.

Students of the Month for the first three months were Roger Sherrill in September, Emilie Garmon in October, and John Barbee for November.

Chosen by their teammates, Frank Simmons received the Best Sportsmanship trophy and Glenn Morris, the Most Valuable Player Award in football.

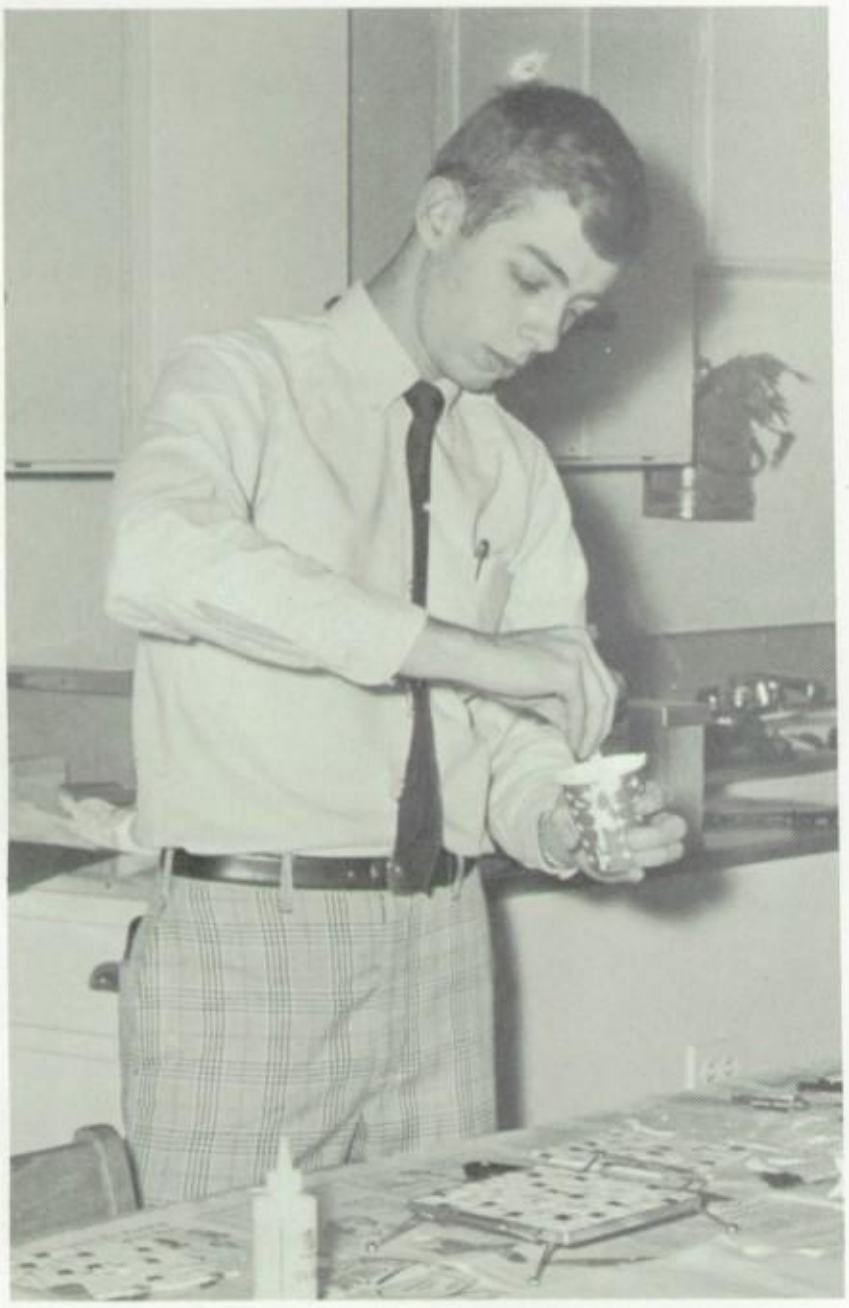
In basketball, the Most Valuable Player Award went to Glenn Morris.

Members of the basketball team chose Roger Sherrill to receive the Best Sportsmanship Award.



Since John Long had excelled in the 100-yard butterfly and had been state champion in that category, he received an ALL AMERICA Award.

Linda Hopkins received a Gold Key Award for the batik that she had entered in the competition. She was working on another here.



ACADEMICS

Academic participation is the foremost purpose of education. It is the infectious spirit of academic endeavor and achievement which sets many students apart.

North has always proved to be an academically competitive school. Students have gone on to highly-academic colleges, where they represented well the high school backgrounds they had acquired.

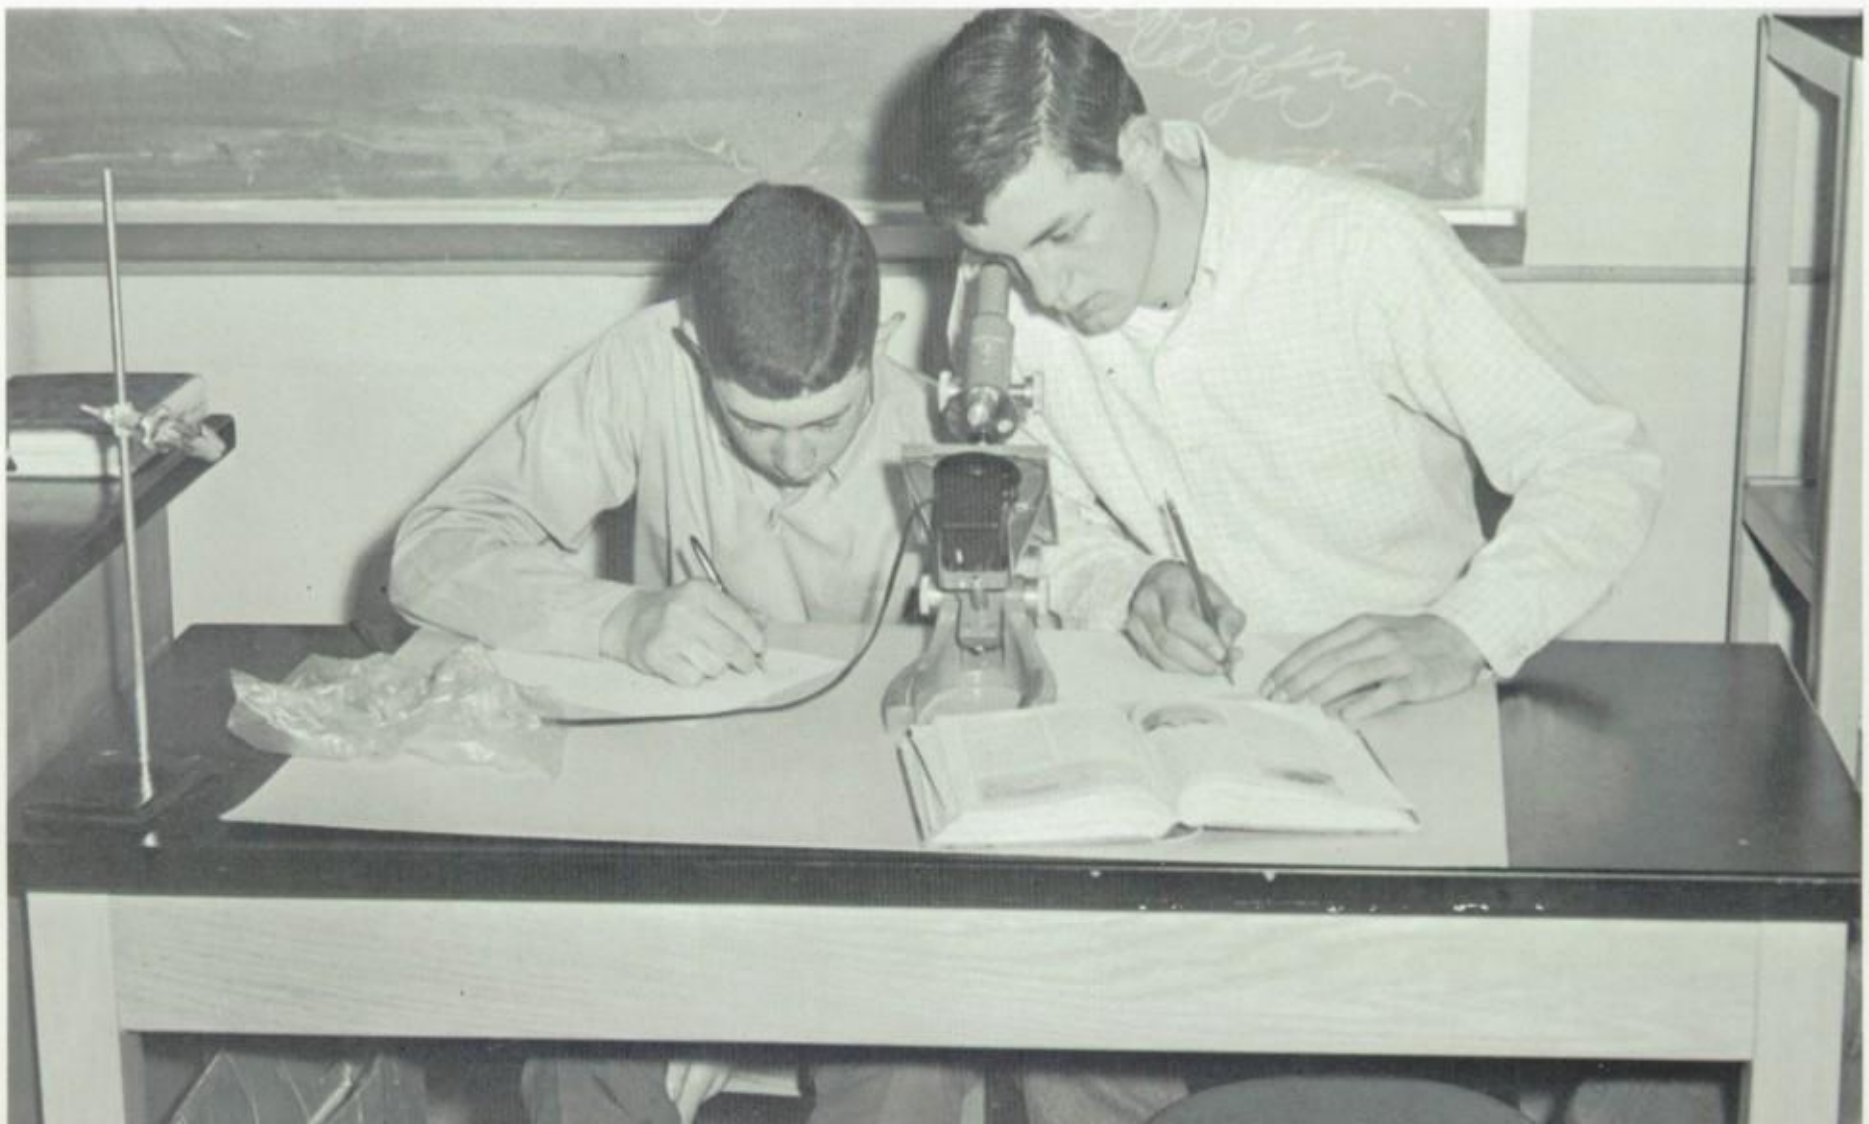
This academic section of the '68 Viking attempts a look into the varied academic offerings at North . . .

Varied Programs of Study Offered at North

Courses offered at North were many. Each student could find something of interest to add to the required courses. Programs of study ranged from vocational training to college preparatory work.

In mechanical drawing class, students develop many skills that can be applied in certain jobs. Mr. Cochran talked with Floyd Long about the work that he was preparaing to hand in.

Almost all students are interested in learning how to use the microscope and in seeing what they can find on the slide. J. W. Monteith and Hugh Canipe were filling out lab sheets about their findings.



Learning included contact with authorities in different fields, who were invited to come to the school. During the science assembly, Ken Dresser assisted Mr. Gene Eagle, who performed an experiment. The topic of his discussion and experiments was "This Atomic World."

Study was not always limited to school hours. Many students had lessons after school in subjects such as art or music. Woody Washam was frequently called on to take part in musical programs at school.

For sophomores, the home ec department sponsored a get-together in the fall. Mrs. Puckett talked with them after refreshments were served by Jane Monteith and Jane Ewart (standing.)

After having had driver education and obtaining their operator's licenses, students were eligible to become bus drivers. On-the-road instructions were given by Mr. Cook to Worda James.

Often, various clubs are interested in improving the looks of the school grounds. Here, Jerry Beard and Jack Clark helped the FHA by planting the azaleas the girls had bought.

CURRICULUM

Mrs. Steele, one of the English teachers, used the new language lab to advantage with her students.

English Classes Acquire New Language Lab

In English, a language lab was a novelty. Ronnie Wilson, Frankie Foster, and Johnny Phillips seemed to be enjoying a lesson in listening.

Added to the English department this year was several hundred dollars worth of equipment and materials. In classes using these, the stress was on learning better listening and speaking and speaking habits as well as on developing reading and comprehension skills.

As usual, however, classes still discussed Silas Marner and looked for its deeper meaning, juniors debated the issues in The Scarlet Letter and drew conclusions about the Puritan beliefs, and seniors acted out the witches scene from Macbeth with enjoyment.

Theme writing and research papers kept students in the library searching for materials. Novels were read and enjoyed as well as many other forms of literature. Many students developed their ability to read and write along with their appreciation of the works of outstanding authors.

For their book reports in Mrs. Covington's senior English, students presented skits, prepared panel discussions, and used other interesting means of preparation. Here Raeford Bustle, Pete Canipe, Bobby Beard, Ken Ballard, and Allen Watson enacted a scene from Mutiny on the Bounty.

Panel discussions were frequently used in class. Outstanding people in the community were invited to give their opinion, too. Mr. Henry Lomax shared his ideas with Mrs. Mott's class. Reggie Kennedy seemed to hold the interest of Mr. Lomax and Susan Heaton.

At Christmas, fourth-year Latin students put up a "brocade" bulletin board of the Lord's Prayer in Latin. Don Hager and Eddie Ferrell were two of the students who worked on it.

Foreign Language Classes Include Literature, Labs

Latin, French, and Spanish are the foreign languages offered at North. The modern languages, French and Spanish, stress the spoken as well as the written word of a language. Tapes, through which the student could practice pronunciation led by a native of the country, were made use of in the language lab.

Latin generally adhered to translation; although literary passages were often read aloud, it is not a conversational language.

Students in their second year or beyond were eligible for membership in that language club which met during class period.

Joe Elmore had the right job — just sitting. He was the model for these three sculptors, Cookie Auten, Pam Primm, and Gail Fortenberry.

Fine Arts Offer Many Mediums of Creative Expression

Courses offered in the fine arts included band, orchestra, art, chorus, and drama. These classes met during school hours, but were often involved in activities after school.

North students were also involved in competition with students from other schools. Entries were prepared for the Scholastic Art Exhibit, locally sponsored by NCNB; Chorus students participated in choral contest in Charlotte, Mars Hill, and Greensboro. Band members competed in local and state contests.

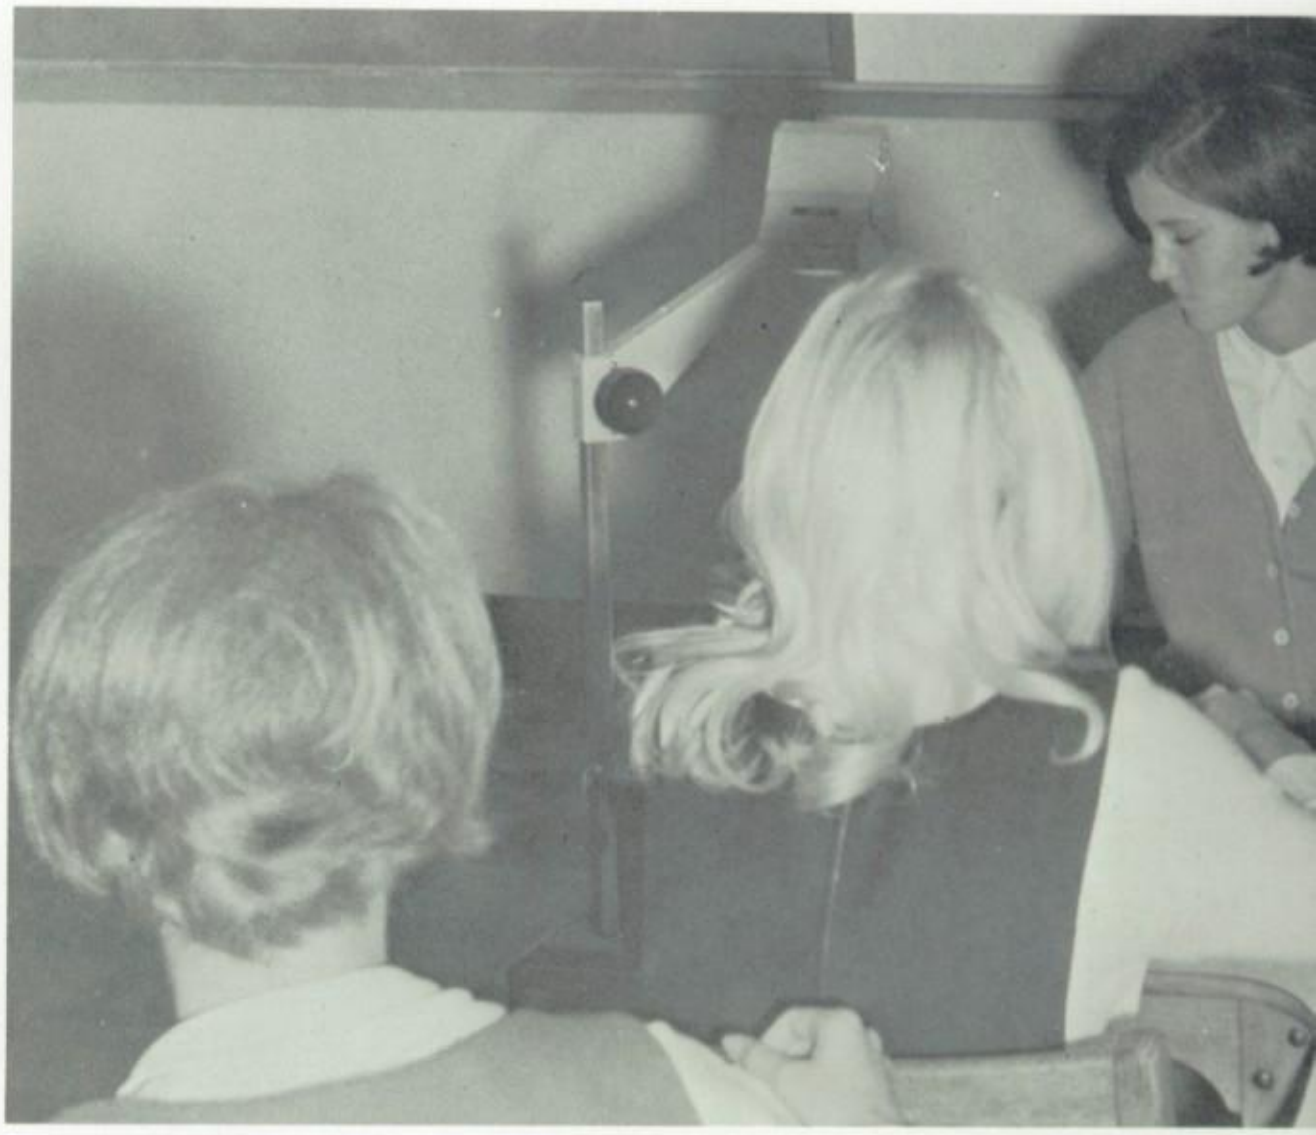
Fine arts is one field that the student can enter and express himself through many mediums. Courses are taken for enjoyment as well as for knowledge.

Drawn from the regular band roster to form the Blue Notes, North's stage band, practiced every day. They performed on numerous occasions.

Math, Science Departments Expand; Offer New Courses

Changes are always evident in the mathematics department. Today the answer is not the important thing, but why and how.

Students who are planning to enter college are encouraged to take algebra, geometry, algebra-trig and math analysis. Business students are advised to take business math in order to increase their speed and accuracy. Modern and general math are also offered.



Norvell Baskin used the new overhead projector which the math department had this year. Coy Blackburn and Neal Latane looked on.

Cathy McCorkle received extra help from Mr. Edwards. It was not unusual to see students staying after school or coming in during study hall to get help.

Science courses offered at North ranged from biology to physics. Biology I was required for all sophomores, so most of them got this credit off in the first year. For interested students, chemistry, Biology II, and physics were offered. For those wishing a unit's credit in a science other than these, physical science was offered.

Laboratory sciences customarily included lab once a week and written lab reports of findings. An exhibit of the students' work was held in February and the PTA was invited to see what the students had been doing.

Studying and taking the readings on the potometer was Lawson Jenkins. He recorded the amount of water the small cedar used each day. After two weeks it was still green and the branches were not dry.

Steve Nelson and Bill Dennis performed an experiment in physics to determine the mechanical equivalent of heat.

Working in small groups is sometime helpful. Mr. Ratteree supervised group work in his class as Franklin Cook and Dianne Stewart worked together. Melda Williams was working in the background.

Progress, Problems of Man Learned in Social Studies

Courses offered for social studies credit at North were world history, U.S. history, psychology, and sociology. Marketing was also offered.

Students surveyed the progress and problems of mankind as world history unfolded the story of civilization. Juniors learned about their own country in U.S. history. They followed the course of democracy from its very beginnings up to the present time.

Other offerings in social studies gave the student information that was of help to him as an individual in the world of today.

In a relaxed atmosphere, Mr. Cansler encouraged his students to take part in the discussion of current topics.

Driver Education and Physical Education Offered Sophs

Driver education included road training. Wanda Burch took her place behind the wheel as Mr. Cherry, Mr. Barnhardt, and Curtiss Trapp stood by.

Driver education was made available to those students approaching their sixteenth birthday and desiring a driver's license. Thirty hours of classroom instruction was required to conplete the course, followed by six hours of actual driving.

Physical education classes were required of sophomores who were not taking either band or chorus. Classes for girls included archery, field hockey, and modern dance. Football, basketball, wrestling, and baseball were among the sports taken up by the boys.

Tumbling was an indoor activity taken up by the boys PE classes. Many were the spills they took before they mastered the art.

Reggie Black practiced for better speed on the keypunch machine.

"You mean that there's that many wires right here?" said Debby as Mrs. Pons showed Debby Wally how to insert the panel after it had been wired.

Commercial Department Adds Data Processing, Law

At North, the commercial department expands a little each year. This year, data processing and business law were two new subjects offered to commercial students. If they chose to do so, students could develop skills at North that would give them the opportunity to go right into good jobs upon graduation. Typing, shorthand, business machines, communications skills, and bookkeeping were among the other courses offered.

Good grooming and proper make-up is important in getting a job. Mary Blakely, a '67 graduate, got a demonstration from the Merle Norman representative on how to apply her make-up.

Vocational Courses Prepare Students for Future Work

Students always have the opportunity to prepare themselves for the future with the many vocational courses offered at North. The smell of a delicious cake or the sound of a saw is an indication that such work is in progress.

North's vocational courses include home economics, family life, agriculture, industrial arts, mechanical drawing, and shop. All are good life preparatory courses.

Something cooking always brings a pleasant look to the face. Jack Horton couldn't help watching the cookies that he and Cindy Borowski had made.

Mr. Gabriel explained the use of the joiner, a machine used in shop, as Gary Reagan, Otho Morrison, and other boys in the class listened.

Henry Shue checked out a book from the library. Mrs. Penny, the librarian, stamped it for him. Henry, like many other students, used the library to good advantage.

Library, Guidance Office Interested in Student Welfare

For study during lunch break and study hall and for outside research, students turned to the library. To aid students in checking out books and using the facilities of the library, the librarian was there before and after school. This year, many new books were added that were of high interest to the students.

North was fortunate to gain a second counselor in the guidance office this year. With the number of students nearing fourteen hundred, this was a step forward. At one time or another during the year, the counselors were able to see each student, either for individual or group counseling.

Working as an assistant in the guidance office, Donna Sharpe found some records for Mrs. Pharr, the new counselor.

ADMINISTRATION

County, Local Administration Guides Destiny of School

Guiding the destiny of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools was the Board of Education and Dr. William Self, Superintendent. Many assistants helped in directing the course of the schools.

As usual, problems were compounded, and some were almost impossible to work out. Dr. Self, nevertheless, was a dedicated servant to the cause of the public schools, and as superintendent, worked to meet the demands made on him in this position. He, along with the Board of Education, strived to make the Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools among the best in the nation.

Dr. William Self graduated from Catawba College and later entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he earned his Masters Degree. Later he earned his doctorate there.

Dr. Self came to Charlotte in 1962 as assistnat superintendent of the local school system. He is now superintendent of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools.

Dr. Self had served as coach, teacher, assistant principal, and elementary principal before becoming assistant superintendent of the Winston-Salem Schools, from which position he came to Charlotte.

Dr. William Self

Mr. W. A. Hough

North's principal since 1955, Mr. William A. Hough graduated from Wake Forest College. He studied administrative education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Throughout his years at North, Mr. Hough has been aware of the needs of the individual. With patience and understanding, he has strived to help each one. He is a friend to both student and teacher.

He saw something that needed to be done, and he was willing to do it himself. That was typical of North's principal, Mr. W. A. Hough.

Administration Kept Busy by Endless School Problems

MR. BRYCE HURD
A graduate of Lees-McRae, Elon, and Appalachian State University is Mr. Bryce Hurd. This year her served as North's assistant principal and athletic director. Helping with registration and scheduling is another of his duties.

MR. I. T. GRAHAM
After graduating from Johnson C. Smith University, Mr. Isaac T. Graham received his MA Degree from New York University. Mr. Graham's duties include cafeteria supervision, bus transportation and student absences, especially those who cut classes.

MRS. VIRGINIA WALLACE
Keeping up with absentee cards and typing the absentee lists were only a few of the duties of Mrs. Virginia Wallace. One of two office secretaries, Mrs. Wallace acted as receptionist and stenographer.

MRS. LOUELLA HEFNER
Handling monthly reports of bus drivers and keeping track of "blue sheets," Mrs. Louella Hefner also acted as the school treasurer. She spent a great deal of her time keeping accurate records.

MRS. MARIAN BEARD
Secretary of the Guidance Department, Mrs. Marian Beard was occupied most of the time with checking records, sending out transcripts, as well as answering many questions of both students and teachers.

MRS. ANNIE MAE STYERS
Cataloging books and typing book orders kept Mrs. Annie Mae Styers busy most of the time. In charge of the secretarial duties of the library, one of her duties was to send out overdue notices to the students.

Getting the bank deposit ready on time was a constant battle, for some teachers were always late depositing their book money. Mrs. Hefner always came through, though.

Cafeteria Staff Serves Nourishing Meals to Hungry Rebels

With each working on a different item on the menu, Mrs. Hazel Chapman, Mrs. Florence Ealey, and Mrs. Vassie Deaton helped prepare lunch for over one thousand students.

For hundreds of class-weary students, lunch time was a time for relaxation. This, however, was not so for the cafeteria staff.

Many hours went into the preparation of well balanced meals, which were served at three different lunch periods. When the line of hungry students rushed into place, meals had to be ready for them.

Not only were workers needed to do the meal planning and cooking, but also to collect money from the students as they passed through the line. But that did not end the day. There was much cleaning to do after the mob of happy Rebels returned to classes.

As manager of the cafeteria, Mrs. Frances Beard had to check her list to see that all needed items were available for the workers.

Cafeteria staff members included (SEATED) Mrs. Annie Hager, Mrs. Louise Swicegood, Mrs. Frances Beard, Mrs. Naomi Lee, Mrs. Elsie Deaton. (STANDING) Mrs. Daisy Lynch, Mrs. Blanche Lundy, Mrs. Maggie Stephens, Mrs. Vassie Deaton, Mrs. Florence Ealey, and Mrs. Hazel Chapman.

Janitorial Staff Keeps Buildings, Grounds Clean

Cathcing Mr. Hugh Deaton for a picture was not easy, but the photographer caught him unaware that his picture was being taken. Acting as custodian, Mr. Deaton was kept busy.

Supervised by Mr. Hugh Deaton, the janitorial staff performed many duties to keep the buildings neat and clean. Their work began early in the morning when Mr. Deaton arrived to open the school and adjust the heat to a comfortable temperature for arriving students.

During class time, the janitorial staff worked to clean the halls for the safety and the health of the students. During lunch time, they cleaned the rooms, sweeping and emptying trash cans. Another duty was that of keeping the grounds clean and the grass cut.

Members of the janitorial staff were (FRONT) Leonard Ferrell, Charles Springs. (BACK) Theodore Cornelius, and Sudie Cornelius.

HONORS

'67 Graduate Received Receives Morehead Scholarship

Scholarships to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill are offered to outstanding senior boys each year in the form of John Motley Morehead Awards. This is a four-year grant for undergraduate study. It covers the costs of tuition, room, board, books, and student fees. Nominees for the award are chosen on the basis of scholastic ability, citizenship, leadership potential, and physical vigor. Unlike many other scholarships, the Morehead Award does not consider financial need.

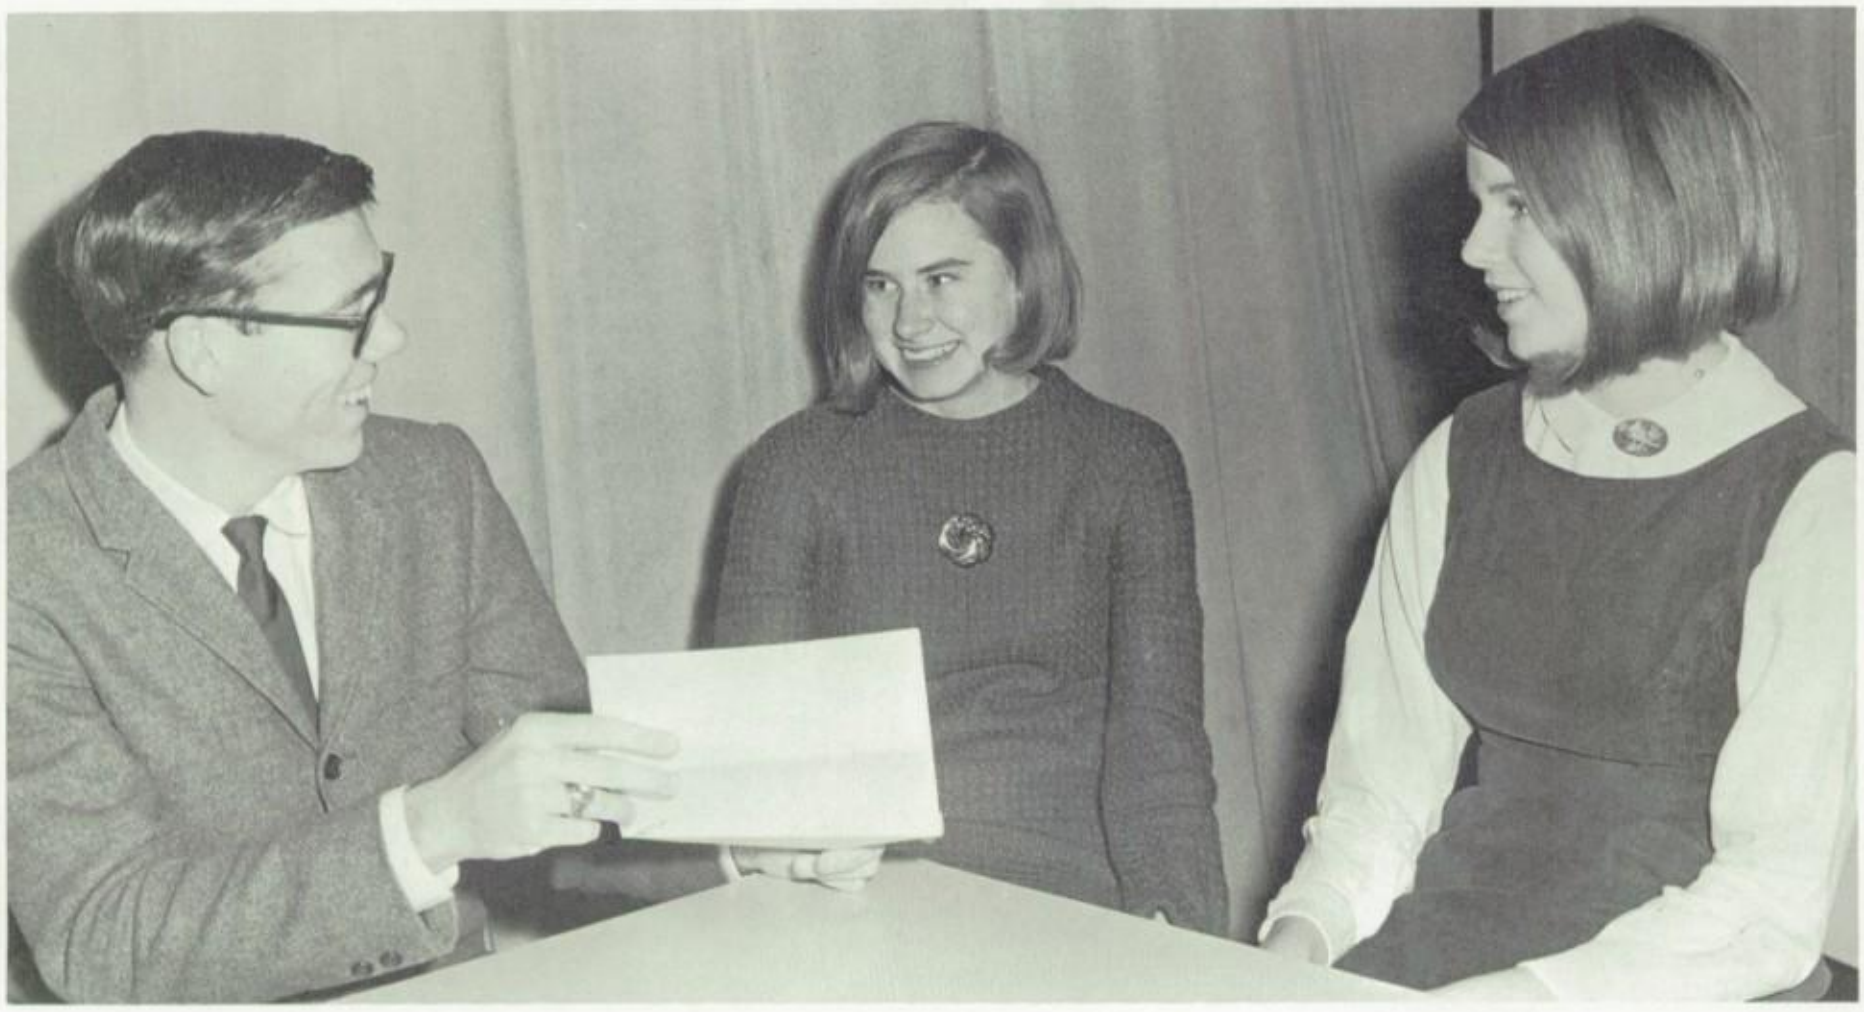
Two North seniors were nominated for competition for the 1968 Award. Don Hager and Glenn McLeroy were chosen by a faculty committee to represent the school and were interviewed in October on the district level. Although neither of the boys were selected for further compeition, it was an honor to be selected to represent the school.

In 1967, Shaw Smith received the John Motley Morehead Award. In all, North has had six boys to be chosen for this honor.

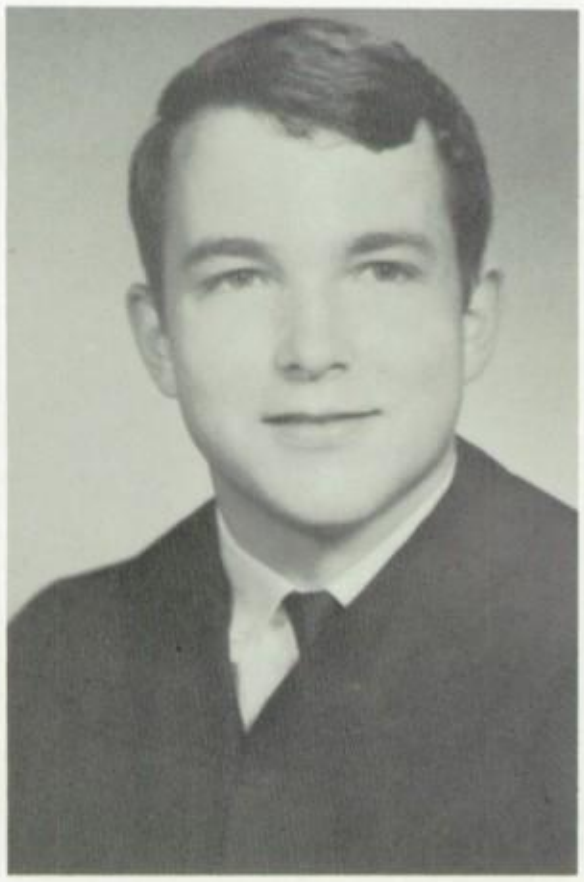
Shaw Smith received a Morehead grant in 1967.

Don Hager and Glenn McLeroy discussed the interview after they had been down to talk with the committee which selects the finalists.

Seniors Qualify for National Merit Competition



Happy over his semifinalist rating, Eddie Ferrell showed his certificate to Jane Nicholls and Martha Johnston who were also semifinalists. Rosser Cartner was also named a semifinalist in the National Merit Competition.



Winner of a four-year grant, based on his performance each year, was Steve White. Steve was named a winner in the National Merit Competition in the spring.

Providing scholarship aid for academically talented students is the function of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Taken by juniors in the early spring, the first phase of the nation-wide competition was the National Merit Qualifying Test. More than 14,000 top-scoring students were named in September as semifinalists. As seniors, these students were required to take the December series of the College Boards in order to determine which would be finalists. Members of this group were considered for 2,900 scholarships valued at more than eight million dollars.

In 1967, North's Steve White was named as the recipient of a four-year Merit scholarship. To help win this scholarship, Steve made a perfect score (800) on his College Boards math test and missed a perfect score in the verbal section by only a few points. Semifinalists this year were Rosser Cartner, Martha Johnston, Jane Nicholls, and Eddie Ferrell.

Juniors Act as Marshals, Attend Governor's School

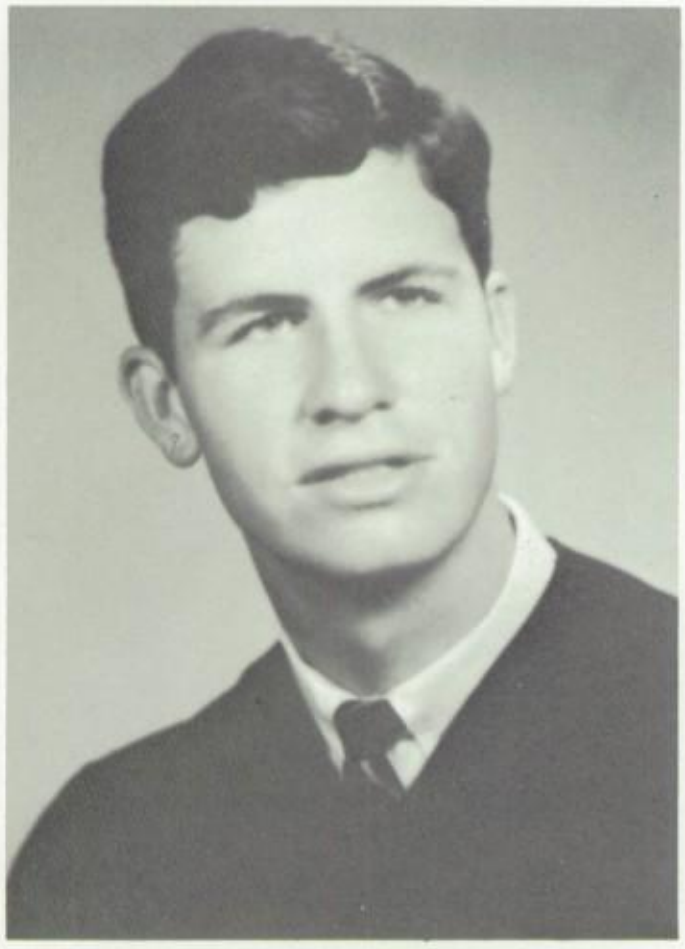
Being selected as a Junior Marshal is one of the highest honors for scholastic achievement at North. The ten juniors with the highest averages are chosen for the honor each spring.

Their duties include distributing programs and ushering at graduation. The two juniors with the highest averages serve as Chief Marshals. They have the honor of leading the senior procession at the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

About four hundred students spend six weeks during the summer at the North Carolina Governor's School. Instruction is offered in most academic subjects and the fine arts. Beauford Jordan, who studied voice, music composition, and theory, was a delegate to the school from North. Candidates were nominated by teachers, and the top applicants were auditioned.

Beauford (Buddy) Jordan looked over some of the music he studied at Governor's School.

Outstanding Seniors Recognized at '67 Graduation

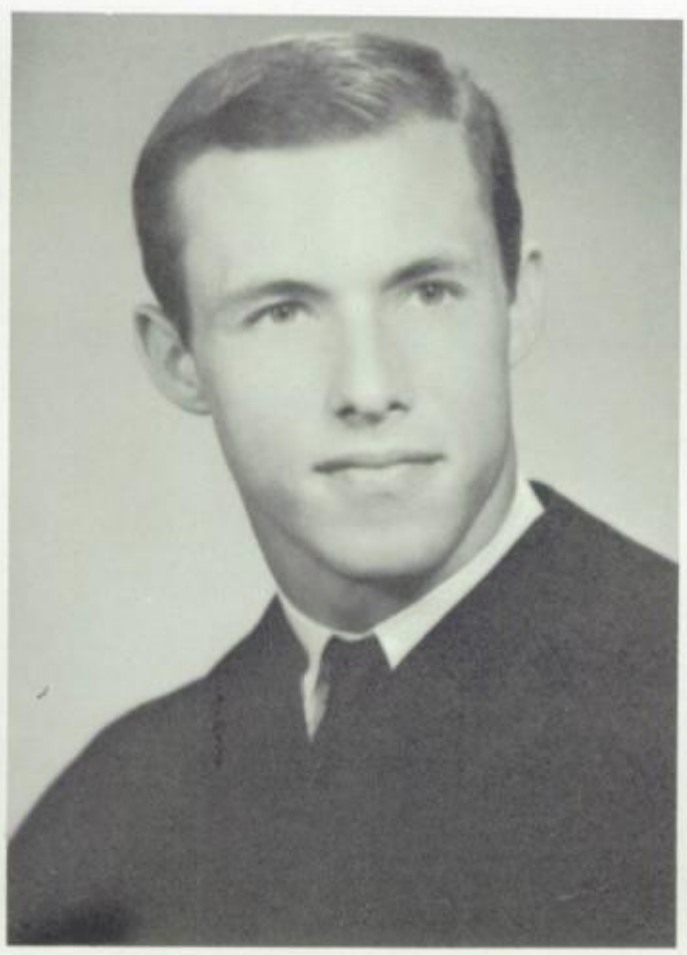


Truscott Rhodes

For his outstanding service and dedication to North, Truscott Rhodes was named Student of the Year. His leadership and scholarship were exhibited in many ways. A member of the Key Club and National Honor Society, Truscott served as Student Council president for the year 1966-67. He was elected Student of the Month and later chosen as Student of the Year in competition with the other Students of the Month.

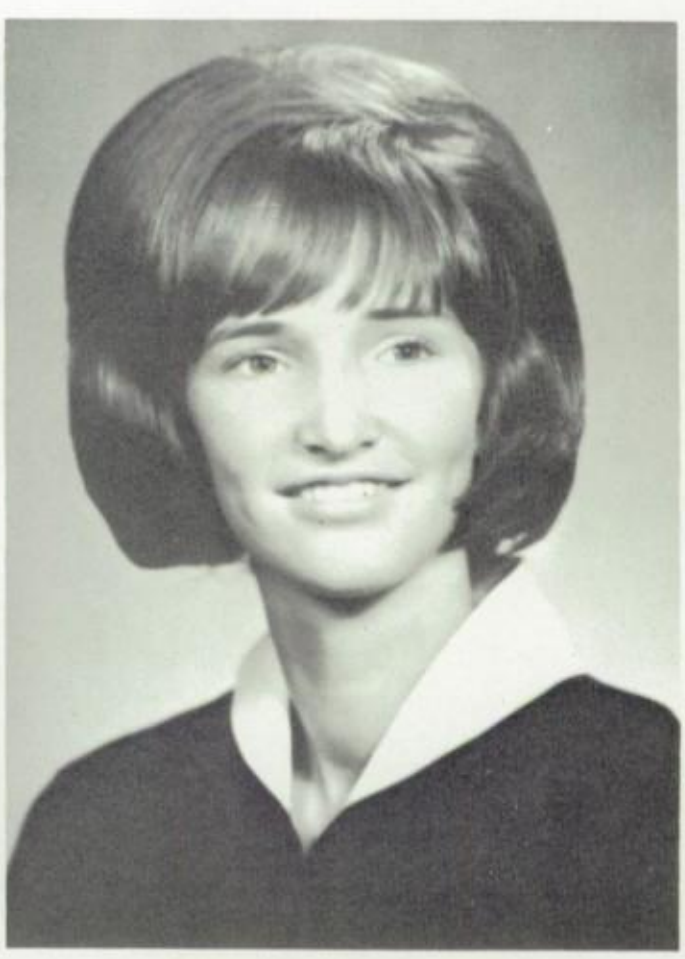
Alan Kelly

In recognition of his outstanding contribution to North through participation in extracurricular activities and academic achievement, Alan Kelly was the recipient of the Civitan Citizenship Award. Alan was secretary of the Key Club, president of his homeroom, and a member of the House and Grounds Committee. An all-round good student, he was conscientious, dependable, and devoted to serving North.



Shaw Smith

Outstanding in every phase of student life, Shaw Smith was presented the Senior Fulfillment Award. President of the senior class and chairman of the Honor Council, Shaw also served as president of the Key Club and vice-chairman of the Interclub Council. His activities covered a wide range of interests, and all were characterized by excellence. Shaw worked constantly to develop his potential to the fullest.



Marilyn Cooke

Earning the Viking Service Award was Marilyn Cooke. The purpose of this award is to recognize a student who gave of his time, effort, and ability to serve North in the best way possible. Marilyn served as co-president of the Booster Club, president of the Civinettes, secretary of the Interclub Council, and Copy Editor of the Viking. Not only did she perform these duties well, but gave of her time to work for North in any way that she could.

Super Fine! Super Great! We're the Class of '68

It is usually felt that the senior year in high school is the best. Maybe it is, but being a senior is not always fun. There are times of sadness, looking back over twelve years of school. Too, there are times of anxiety for those who plan for college after graduation. Will those College Boards be high enough?

For those who plan to go to work after graduation, there is always the problem of finding the right job and taking one's place in the community.

Nevertheless, graduation rolls around and another class of seniors bids goodbye to North and her faculty. This year it was the class of 1968 —Super Fine! Super Great!

Under the close scrutiny of Mrs. Estelle Mott was the Rebel. She looked as if she could not make up her mind just what adjective she would use to describe it. Mrs. Mott is the senior class adviser.

Behind every successful activity, there is always work carried on by committee members and other interested students. To make the Homecoming Dance a success, Glenn McLeroy, Emilie Garmon, and Glenn Morris worked after school, putting up decorations.

Officers of the Junior Class were Katy Coley, treasurer; Donna Campbell, vice-president; Jane Seay, secretary; and Torrance Banks, president. They, along with the homeroom presidents, formed the Junior Class Steering Committee.

Junior Class Proves Outstanding in Every Way

It was the second time around for members of the Junior Class as another year began at North. For this year's Junior Class it was truly a year filled with activity.

Following tradition, when October rolled around, many juniors took the PSAT and waited anxiously during the following weeks for their score results. Being measured for rings was another thrill, for then they could anticipate the pleasure of getting their rings early in the senior year.

As a class, the Junior-Senior Prom was a major undertaking. Many worked long, weary hours on plans and decorations to make this prom the very best. When the prom was over, juniors looked forward to their final weeks of work and exams, hopefully to becoming rising seniors.

Community Help And Interest Stimulate School

Often people in the community are called in to talk to classes. Mrs. Mott's junior English class had Mr. Donald Hayes, principal of the Learning Academy at Huntersville, to take part in a panel discussion. Their topics were some of the controversial issues of the day.

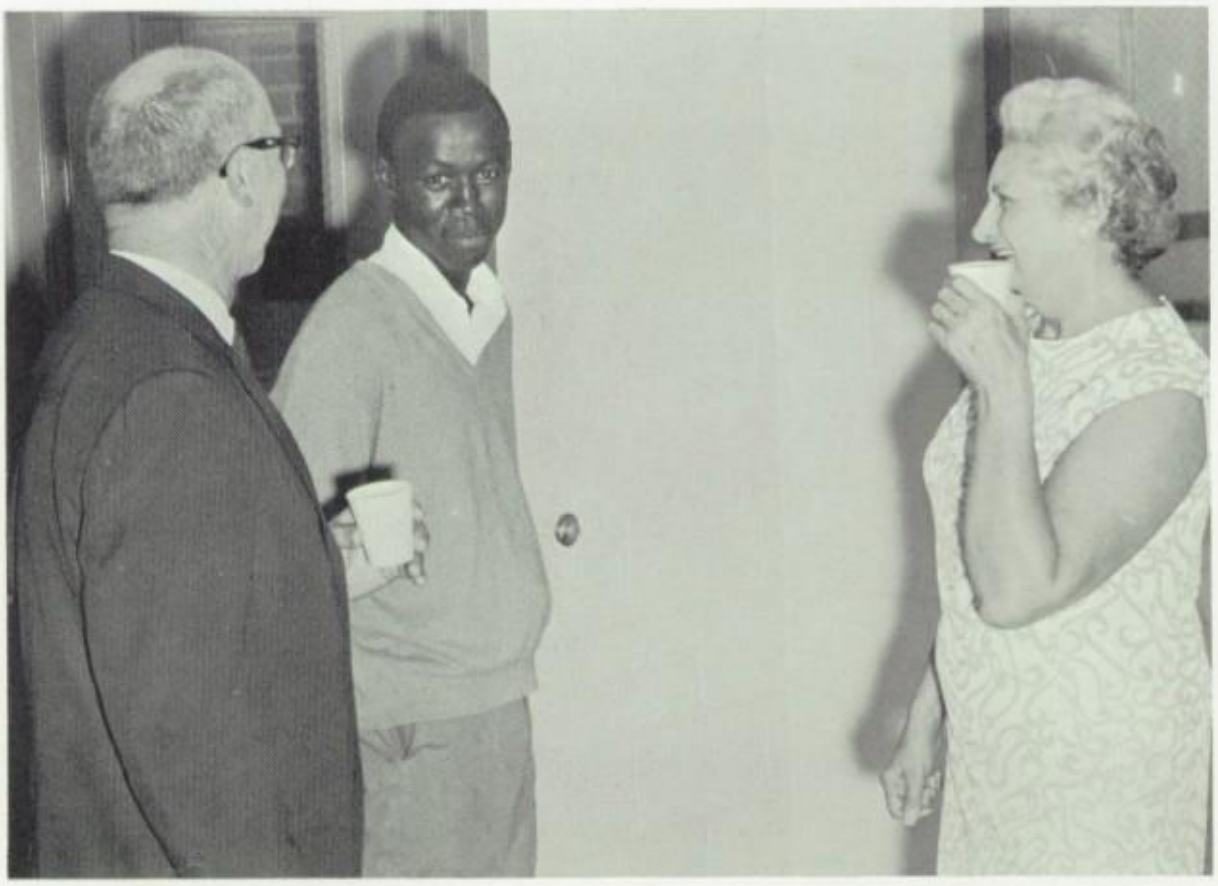
Sophomores First In "Kans For Kids" Food Drive

Elected officers of the Sophomore Class were Jimmy Redding, President; Mary Nell Cavin, vice-president; Linda Freeman, treasurer; and Robin Rhodes, secretary.

Members of the '68 Sophomore Class found themselves the center of attention as they entered North in September. Meeting new friends and greeting the old ones, finding homerooms, peeking in classrooms to see what the teachers looked like were all a part of that first day.

This Sophomore Class proved to be a united group. Their spirit at pep rallies was closely competitive with the older classes. They proved themselves Number One in the Kans for Kids drive by being the first class to bring in five hundred cans to go to needy families.

They had original ideas that they wanted to carry out, also. They were not content to sit and let things pass them by. They let the student body know they were here and meant to take a great part in the activity of the school.



Mr. Hough, principal, and Paul Simmons, a sophomore, talked with Mrs. Helen Hart at the sophomore reception. Mrs. Hart is sponsor of the Sophomore Class.

All parents of Sophomores were invited to the reception given for the Sophomores. Mrs. G. R. Mayes and Mrs. James Mayes took this opportunity to visit the school and become acquainted with other parents

Serving them were Susan Heaton and Barbara Holder. Mrs. H. W. Freeman had just been served.

Competition is strong at Christmas time as each homeroom tries to out do the other in door decorations. "Poor old Charlie Brown" was the theme used by Mrs. Cooke's homeroom. Charles Huffstetler assisted Ronnie Taylor who drew the display.

FHA Reception Helps Sophomores "Feel At Home"

This year the Future Homemakers tried to make the Sophomores feel at home as Rebels by entertaining them one day during the lunch periods. There the girls could chat with each other and with the FHA members as they enjoyed punch and cookies.

Remember this . . . and be persuaded of its truth:
the future is not in the hands of Fate, but in ours.
